| Objective:                | The investment objective of the Fund is to provide exposure to companies with higher than average dividend and quality characteristics in developed market countries. The Fund will seek to track the performance of the FTSE Developed All Cap Dividend Growth with Quality Net Tax Index (the "Index"), subject to the deduction of the TER and other expenses. It will do so by investing primarily in an optimised portfolio of equity securities that, as far as possible and practicable, consists of the component securities of the Index in similar proportions to their weightings in the Index. Where consistent with its investment objective, the Fund may also invest in the following additional assets: companies that are not component securities of the Index, Depositary Receipts, Financial Derivative Instruments. The Fund may, in addition, employ other techniques relating to transferable securities, including entering into securities lending transactions, investing in repurchase and reverse repurchase transactions and money market collective investment schemes. The Fund promotes a range of environmental and social characteristics which are met by tracking the Index. Further information on how such characteristics are met by the Fund can be found in the Fund Supplement. The Index is designed to provide exposure to equity securities of companies in developed markets that have historically exhibited positive dividend growth trends, relatively higher forward estimated dividend yields, and better quality characteristics compared to other companies in developed markets. The Fund is considered to be passively managed as it aims to track the Index by using index 'sampling' techniques. Adjustments to the Fund's portfolio, including as a result of a reconstitution of the Index, will incur transaction costs. Shares in this share class (the "Shares") are denominated in USD and can be bought and sold on stock exchanges by ordinary investors using an intermediary (e.g. a stockbroker). In normal circumstances, only Authorised Participants may buy and sell Shares directly with the Company. Authorised Participants may redeem their Shares on demand in accordance with the "Dealing Timetable" published on https://am.landg.com/. Dividend Policy: This Share Class aims to pay monthly dividends out of the Fund's capital or income by electronic transfer. Distribution out of a combination of net income and/or capital attributable to this share class will be paid out to you. Distribution share classes aim to pay a stable monthly distribution amount per share. The level of stable distribution is not guaranteed and may fall as well as rise. The depositary of the Fund is the Bank of New York Mellon SA/NV, Dublin Branch. Further information about the Fund and the share class can be obtained from the Company's prospectus and the annual and semi-annual reports, which are available, in addition to the latest prices for the share class and details of any other share classes, free of charge at: https://am.landg.com/. |
| Intended Retail Investor: | The Fund is designed for investors looking for a combination of growth and income from an investment in global developed market company shares. ## What are the risks and what could I get in return?

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this product as 3 out of 7, which is a medium-low risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium-low level, and poor market conditions are unlikely to impact our capacity to pay you.

Further information about the risks that are relevant to this Fund can be found in the Prospectus, available at <https://fundcentres.landg.com>.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

If we are not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment.

Performance Scenarios

What you will get from this product depends on future market performance. Market developments in the future are uncertain and cannot be accurately predicted.

The unfavourable, moderate, and favourable scenarios shown are illustrations using the worst, average, and best performance of the product / a suitable benchmark over the last 10 years. Markets could develop very differently in the future.

The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances.

Unfavourable: This type of scenario occurred for an investment (in reference to benchmark: FTSE Developed All Cap Dividend Growth with Quality Net Tax Index) between October 2017 and September 2022.

Moderate: This type of scenario occurred for an investment (in reference to benchmark: FTSE Developed All Cap Dividend Growth with Quality Net Tax Index) between April 2017 and March 2022.

Favourable: This type of scenario occurred for an investment (in reference to benchmark: FTSE Developed All Cap Dividend Growth with Quality Net Tax Index) between April 2020 and March 2025.

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

What happens if LGIM Managers (Europe) Limited is unable to pay out?

If LGIM Managers (Europe) Limited defaults, investors in the Fund would not face any financial losses. However, the value of an investment and any income taken from it is not guaranteed and can go down as well as up, you may not get back the amount you originally invested. The fund is not covered by an investor compensation scheme.

What are the costs?

The person advising on or selling you this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs and how they affect your investment.

Costs over time

The tables show the amounts that are taken from your investment to cover different types of costs. These amounts depend on how much you invest, how long you hold the product and how well the product does. The amounts shown here are illustrations based on an example investment amount and different possible investment periods:

We have assumed:

- In the first year you would get back the amount that you invested (0% annual return). For the other holding periods we have assumed the product performs as shown in the moderate scenario.
- USD 10,000 is invested.

|                               | If you exit after 1 year | If you exit after 5 years |
|-------------------------------|--------------------------|---------------------------|
| Total costs            | 31 USD                   | 227 USD                   |
| Annual cost impact (*) | 0.3%                     | 0.3% (each year)          |

(*) This illustrates how costs reduce your return each year over the holding period. For example it shows that if you exit at the recommended holding period your average return per year is projected to be 8.1% before costs and 7.8% after costs.

We may share part of the costs with the person selling you the product to cover the services they provide to you. They will inform you of the amount.

How long should I hold it and can I take money out early?

Recommended holding period: 5 (years)

The recommended holding period of 5 years has been selected for illustrative purposes for a product with a medium to long-term investment horizon. There is no minimum (or maximum) holding period for the fund and you can redeem your investment any time in accordance with the fund prospectus, however you may receive less than expected if you cash in earlier than the RHP. If you are in any doubt about the suitability of the product to meet your needs, you should seek professional advice. The Shares can be sold by ordinary investors using an intermediary (e.g. a stockbroker) when the markets on which they trade are open. An intermediary is likely to apply a commission to purchases and sales. Please see "What are the costs?" section for details of any exit fees.

The above mentioned period has been defined in accordance to the product characteristics.

How can I complain?
