Index	The Nasdaq CTA Cybersecurity Index (the “Parent Index”) is a modified free float market capitalization weighted index designed to track the performance of companies engaged in the cybersecurity segment of the technology and industrial sectors. The Parent Index includes companies primarily involved in the building, implementation and management of security protocols applied to private and public networks, computers and mobile devices in order to provide protection of the integrity of data and network operations.

Fund Characteristics

The Index is a sub-set of the Parent Index. The composition of the Index is determined by the application of ESG risk scoring and exclusionary screens to the constituents of the Parent Index.

Details of the Parent Index and how the Parent Index is calculated as well as the ESG risk scoring and exclusionary screens which are applied to determine the composition of the Index are set out below.

Index Description

The description below is a summary of information provided by the Index Provider on the methodology for the construction of the Parent Index and Index.

The Parent Index is a modified free float market capitalization- weighted index. The value of the Parent Index equals the aggregate value of the Parent Index share weights, also known as the Parent Index Shares, of each of the Parent Index Securities multiplied by each such security's Last Sale Price¹, and divided by the divisor of the Parent Index. The divisor serves the purpose of scaling such aggregate value to a lower order of magnitude which is more desirable for reporting purposes. The Parent Index began on 23 June 2015 at a base value of 1,000.00. The Index began on 6 November 2023.

The Parent Index is designed to track the performance of companies engaged in the cybersecurity segment of the technology and industrial sectors. The Parent Index includes companies primarily involved in the building, implementation and management of security protocols applied to private and public networks, computers and mobile devices in order to provide protection of the integrity of data and network operations.

The Parent Index / Index is owned by Nasdaq, Inc. (the "Index Provider"). The Index Provider and the Consumer Technology Association ("CTA") have jointly developed the eligibility and selection criteria and rules for the Parent Index and the Index. The Parent Index will include securities of companies classified as "cybersecurity" companies by the CTA. The CTA will only give the cybersecurity classification to those companies that meet one of three elements: (1) companies focused on developing technologies that are designed and implemented to protect computer and communication networks from attacks and outside unauthorized use; (2) companies involved in the deployment of technologies for cybersecurity industry use including government, private and public corporations, financial institutions and various other industries; and (3) companies focused on the protection of priority data from being accessed and exploited by unauthorized external parties.

The Parent Index is constructed by NASDAQ in the following manner:

To be included in the Parent Index, a security must meet certain additional criteria, including that it must have a minimum worldwide market capitalisation of $500

¹ For purposes of this document, Last Sale Price refers to the last regular way trade reported on such security's Index Market. The Index Market is the listing market for which prices are received and used by Nasdaq in the Index calculation and generally will represent the most liquid trading market of the Index Security. If a security does not trade on its Index Market on a given day or the Index Market has not opened for trading, the most recent last sale price from the Index Market (adjusted for corporate actions, if any) is used. For securities where Nasdaq is Index Market, the Last Sale Price may be the Nasdaq Official Closing Price (NOCP) when Nasdaq is closed.

Fund Characteristics

million, a minimum three-month average daily dollar trading volume of $1 million and a minimum free float of 20%.

The final weights of the Parent Index must meet the following constraints:

- the weight of a security may not exceed 8% of the Parent Index;
- for any security whose free float market capitalization is not ranked among the top five, its weight may not exceed 4% of the Parent Index; and
- no security weight may be lower than 0.25% of the Parent Index.

The formula for index value is as follows: Aggregate Adjusted Market Value/Divisor

The formula for the divisor is as follows: (Market Value after Adjustments/Market Value before Adjustments) X Divisor before Adjustments.

The Fund will be managed in reference to a total return version index. The net total return index (NASDAQ: NQCYBRN) reinvests cash dividends on the ex-date and adjusts for an index security's country of incorporation withholding rate.

The Parent Index reflects extraordinary cash distributions.

The Parent Index is calculated during the trading day and are disseminated once per second. The Index is calculated five (5) days a week, Monday through Friday, starting by the earliest time zone Asia/Tokyo and close by the latest time zone America/New York in USD.

Application of Exclusionary Screens and ESG Scoring

The composition of the Index is determined by the application of ESG scoring and exclusionary screens to the constituents of the Parent Index. The screening is undertaken by Nasdaq based on data it sources from Sustainalytics.

The following screening categories may be considered when assessing a company's involvement in events or incidents with negative ESG implications: (i) land use and biodiversity; (ii) resource use; (iii) oil sands extraction; (iv) human rights; (v) access to basic services; (vi) occupational health & safety; (vii) adult entertainment; (viii) controversial weapons; (ix) bribery and corruption; (x) accounting and taxation risk.

In addition to the exclusionary screens, companies will be assessed and assigned a "Controversy Rating". If a negative ESG event or incident (an "ESG Incident") connected with a company is identified, an assessment of the ESG Incident is made from a holistic perspective based on the following factors:

1. Impact: negative impact that the incidents have caused to the environment and society;
2. Risk: business risk to the company as a result of the incidents; and
3. Management: a company's management systems and response to incidents.

Fund Characteristics

	Following this assessment an ESG score or Controversy Rating is assigned to the ESG Incident. An ESG Incident is assessed on a scale of 5 categories ranging from Category 1 (Low) to Category 5 (Severe). Companies are then assigned a Controversy Rating which reflects the company's exposure to such negative ESG Incidents (if any). Companies which have a Controversy Rating of higher than Category 4 (High) will be excluded from the Index. Information on the composition and weightings of the Index is published on the NASDAQ website at: https://indexes.nasdaqomx.com/Index/Overview/NQCYBRE. The Index is rebalanced quarterly in March, June, September and December and reconstituted semi-annually in March and September. The Fund is subject to tracking error risk, which is the risk that its returns may not track exactly those of the Index.
