Index	The Nasdaq CTA Cybersecurity Index (the "Parent Index") is a modified free float market capitalization weighted index designed to track the performance of companies engaged in the cybersecurity segment of the technology and industrial sectors. The Parent Index includes companies primarily involved in the building, implementation and management of security protocols applied to private and public networks, computers and mobile devices in order to provide protection of the integrity of data and network operations.

Fund Characteristics
	The Index is a sub-set of the Parent Index. The composition of the Index is determined by the application of ESG risk scoring and exclusionary screens to the constituents of the Parent Index. Details of the Parent Index and how the Parent Index is calculated as well as the ESG risk scoring and exclusionary screens which are applied to determine the composition of the Index are set out below. Index Description The description below is a summary of information provided by the Index Provider on the methodology for the construction of the Parent Index and Index. The Parent Index is a modified free float market capitalization- weighted index. The value of the Parent Index equals the aggregate value of the Parent Index share weights, also known as the Parent Index Shares, of each of the Parent Index Securities multiplied by each such security's Last Sale Price[1], and divided by the divisor of the Parent Index. The divisor serves the purpose of scaling such aggregate value to a lower order of magnitude which is more desirable for reporting purposes. The Parent Index began on 23 June 2015 at a base value of 1,000.00. The Index began on 6 November 2023. The Parent Index is designed to track the performance of companies engaged in the cybersecurity segment of the technology and industrial sectors. The Parent Index includes companies primarily involved in the building, implementation and management of security protocols applied to private and public networks, computers and mobile devices in order to provide protection of the integrity of data and network operations. The Parent Index / Index is owned by Nasdaq, Inc. (the "Index Provider"). The Index Provider and the Consumer Technology Association ("CTA") have jointly developed the eligibility and selection criteria and rules for the Parent Index and the Index. The Parent Index will include securities of companies classified by CTA as "cybersecurity" companies, which may be classified as "core" or "complementary".. "Core" cybersecurity companies are those that provide products, services, and/or solutions including application security, data security, endpoint security, identity and access management, networking security, and security observability. "Complementary" cybersecurity companies are those that offer products, services, and/or solutions including consultants, contractors, and managed service providers that implement cybersecurity solutions for clients, diversified technology providers, governance risk and compliance solutions, and security operations. The CTA will only give the cybersecurity classification to those companies that meet one of three elements: (1) companies focused on developing technologies that are designed and implemented to protect computer and communication networks from attacks and outside unauthorized use; (2) companies involved in the deployment of technologies for cybersecurity industry use including government, private and public corporations, financial institutions and various other industries; and (3) companies focused on the protection of priority data from being accessed and exploited by unauthorized external parties. The Parent Index is constructed by NASDAQ in the following manner: To be included in the Parent Index, a security must meet certain additional criteria, including that it must have a minimum worldwide free float market capitalisation of $500 million, a minimum three-month average daily dollar trading volume of $1 million and a minimum free float of 20%. Eligible securities are then ranked based on positive notional thematic revenue as determined by CTA. The top 50 ranked "core" securities are then selected for inclusion in the Parent Index. If fewer than 50 "core" securities are selected, the top-ranked "complementary" securities are included in rank order until the earlier of 50 total securities are selected or all eligible "complementary" securities are exhausted. The final weights of the Parent Index must meet the following constraints: for "core" securities in the top five by free float market capitalisation, the weight of a security may not exceed 8% of the Parent Index; for any other "core" security whose free float market capitalization is not ranked among the top five, its weight may not exceed 4% of the Parent Index; for "complementary" securities, the weight of a security may not exceed 2% of the Parent Index; and no "core" or "complementary" security weight may be lower than 0.10% of the Parent Index. The formula for index value is as follows: Aggregate Adjusted Market Value/Divisor. The formula for the divisor is as follows: (Market Value after Adjustments/Market Value before Adjustments) X Divisor before Adjustments. The Fund will be managed in reference to a total return version index. The net total return index (NASDAQ: NQCYBRN) reinvests cash dividends on the ex-date and adjusts for an index security's country of incorporation withholding rate. The Parent Index reflects extraordinary cash distributions. The Parent Index is calculated during the trading day and are disseminated once per second. The Index is calculated five (5) days a week, Monday through Friday, starting by the earliest time zone Asia/Tokyo and close by the latest time zone America/New York in USD. Application of Exclusionary Screens and ESG Scoring The composition of the Index is determined by the application of ESG scoring and exclusionary screens to the constituents of the Parent Index. The screening is undertaken by Nasdaq based on data it sources from Sustainalytics.

[1] For purposes of this document, Last Sale Price refers to the last regular way trade reported on such security's Index Market. The Index Market is the listing market for which prices are received and used by Nasdaq in the Index calculation and generally will represent the most liquid trading market of the Index Security. If a security does not trade on its Index Market on a given day or the Index Market has not opened for trading, the most recent last sale price from the Index Market (adjusted for corporate actions, if any) is used. For securities where Nasdaq is Index Market, the Last Sale Price may be the Nasdaq Official Closing Price (NOCP) when Nasdaq is closed.

Fund Characteristics

Fund Characteristics
	The following screening categories may be considered when assessing a company's involvement in events or incidents with negative ESG implications: (i) land use and biodiversity; (ii) resource use: (iii) oil sands extraction; (iv) human rights; (v) access to basic services; (vi) occupational health & safety; (vii) adult entertainment; (viii) controversial weapons; (ix) bribery and corruption; (x) accounting and taxation risk. In addition to the exclusionary screens, companies will be assessed and assigned a "Controversy Rating". If a negative ESG event or incident (an "ESG Incident") connected with a company is identified, an assessment of the ESG Incident is made from a holistic perspective based on the following factors: 1. Impact: negative impact that the incidents have caused to the environment and society; 2. Risk: business risk to the company as a result of the incidents; and 3. Management: a company's management systems and response to incidents. Following this assessment an ESG score or Controversy Rating is assigned to the ESG Incident. An ESG Incident is assessed on a scale of 5 categories ranging from Category 1 (Low) to Category 5 (Severe). Companies are then assigned a Controversy Rating which reflects the company's exposure to such negative ESG Incidents (if any). Companies which have a Controversy Rating of higher than Category 4 (High) will be excluded from the Index. Information on the composition and weightings of the Index is published on the NASDAQ, which can be found by following the link here. The Index is rebalanced quarterly in March, June, September and December and reconstituted semi-annually in March and September. The Fund is subject to tracking error risk, which is the risk that its returns may not track exactly those of the Index.
Index Provider	NASDAQ
Listing Stock Exchange(s)	Shares of the Fund will be primarily listed and admitted for trading on Euronext Dublin and may be listed and admitted for trading on a number of other stock exchanges as determined by the ICAV from time to time.
Sustainable Finance	SFDR Designation: Article 8 Fund. The Fund promotes environmental and social characteristics by investing in companies engaged in the cybersecurity segment of the technology and industrial sectors, excluding companies that are involved in certain activities deemed to have negative environmental and/or social outcomes and also any companies that have a Controversy Rating higher than Category 4.

Fund Characteristics
	ESG Integration: There is no integration of Sustainability Risks into the Investment Manager's investment process for the Fund. This is because the Fund is passively managed with the intention of replicating the performance of the Index. The Index Provider's methodology for determining the constituents of the Index does not consider Sustainability Risks. As Sustainability Risks are not integrated into the investment process for the Fund, the impact of such risks on the returns of the Fund are not assessed. For further information, please refer to the section of the Prospectus entitled "Sustainable Finance".

To what minimum extent are sustainable investments with an environmental objective aligned with the EU Taxonomy?

Not applicable.

To comply with the EU Taxonomy, the criteria for fossil gas include limitations on emissions and switching to renewable power or low-carbon fuels by the end of 2035. For nuclear energy, the criteria include comprehensive safety and waste management rules.

- Does the financial product invest in fossil gas and/or nuclear energy related activities that comply with the EU Taxonomy?[1]

☐ Yes

☐ In fossil gas ☐ In nuclear energy

☒ No

Enabling activities directly enable other activities to make a substantial contribution to an environmental objective.

Transitional activities are activities for which low-carbon alternatives are not yet available and among others have greenhouse gas emission levels corresponding to the best performance.

The two graphs below show in green the minimum percentage of investments that are aligned with the EU Taxonomy. As there is no appropriate methodology to determine the taxonomy-alignment of sovereign bonds*, the first graph shows the Taxonomy alignment in relation to all the investments of the financial product including sovereign bonds, while the second graph shows the Taxonomy alignment only in relation to the investments of the financial product other than sovereign bonds.

For the purpose of these graphs, 'sovereign bonds' consist of all sovereign exposures*

- What is the minimum share of investments in transitional and enabling activities?

What is the minimum share of sustainable investments with an environmental objective that are not aligned with the EU Taxonomy?

Not applicable.

[1] Fossil gas and/or nuclear related activities will only comply with the EU Taxonomy where they contribute to limiting climate change ("climate change mitigation") and do not significantly harm any EU Taxonomy objective – see explanatory note in the left hand margin. The full criteria for fossil gas and nuclear energy economic activities that comply with the EU Taxonomy are laid down in Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2022/1214.

environmental objective that do not take into account the criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities under the EU Taxonomy.

What is the minimum share of socially sustainable investments?

Not applicable.

What investments are included under "#2 Other", what is their purpose and are there any minimum environmental or social safeguards?

A maximum of 10% of the Fund's assets may consist of cash, money market instruments, short-term instruments and eligible collective investment schemes for liquidity purposes and do not incorporate any environmental and social characteristics.

Is a specific index designated as a reference benchmark to determine whether this financial product is aligned with the environmental and/or social characteristics that it promotes?

Reference benchmarks are indexes to measure whether the financial product attains the environmental or social characteristics that they promote.

Yes. The Index is the Fund's reference benchmark for the purposes of attaining the environmental and/or social characteristics promoted by the Fund.

- How is the reference benchmark continuously aligned with each of the environmental or social characteristics promoted by the financial product?

At each quarterly rebalancing of the Index, the Index Provider (i.e Nasdaq Inc.) applies the ESG Selection Criteria to the Nasdaq CTA Cybersecurity Index (the "Parent Index") to remove issuers that do not meet such ESG Selection Criteria. The Index is fully reconstituted semi-annually in line with the ESG Seclection Criteria. Adjustments made to the constituents of the Index through the quarterly rebalancing and semi-annual reconstitution will ensure that the Index is continuously aligned with the environmental and social characteristics promoted by the Fund.

- How is the alignment of the investment strategy with the methodology of the index ensured on a continuous basis?

The Investment Manager aims to replicate the performance of the Index by investing primarily in a portfolio of equity securities that, as far as possible and practicable, consists of the component securities of the Index in similar proportions to their weightings in the Index and in ADRs and GDRs based on the securities in the Index and, as such, the investment strategy is continuously aligned with the methodology of the Index.

- How does the designated index differ from a relevant broad market index?

The Index differs from a broad market index as it provides a thematic exposure to companies engaged in the cybersecurity segment of the technology and industrial sectors. The Index also results in a smaller investment universe than the broad market index and the Parent Index due to the application of the ESG Selection Criteria applied to the constituents of the Index.

- Where can the methodology used for the calculation of the designated index be found?
