The Directors of the ICAV, whose names appear in the Directory in the Prospectus, accept responsibility for the information contained in this Supplement. THE FUND

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to provide investment results that closely correspond, before fees and expenses, generally to the price and yield performance of the Indxx U.S. Infrastructure Development v2 Index (the “Index”).

Investment Policy

In order to achieve this investment objective, the Fund will seek to replicate the performance of the Index, subject to the deduction of the TER and other expenses associated with operating the Fund as further described in the “Fees and Expenses” section of the Prospectus. It will do so by investing primarily in a portfolio of equity securities that, as far as possible and practicable, consists of the component securities of the Index in similar proportions to their weightings in the Index and in American Depositary Receipts (“ADRs”) and Global Depositary Receipts (“GDRs”) based on the securities in the Index. By holding each equity security in approximately the same proportion as its weighting in the Index, the Fund may have exposure to or invest up to 20% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund in stocks issued by the same body.

The Fund is not classified as an Article 8 or Article 9 fund pursuant to SFDR, however, disclosure in accordance with the requirements of Article 6 of SFDR in relation to the integration of sustainability risks is set out in the Prospectus.

The Index is designed to measure the performance of U.S. listed companies that provide exposure to domestic infrastructure development, including companies involved in construction and engineering; production of infrastructure raw materials, composites and products; industrial transportation; and producers/distributors of heavy construction equipment (collectively, “U.S. Infrastructure Development Companies”), as defined by Indxx LLC (the “Index Provider”).

The eligible universe of the Index includes the most liquid and investable companies in accordance with the standard market capitalisation and liquidity criteria associated with developed markets, as defined by the Index Provider. As of 1 February 2023, companies must have a minimum market capitalisation of $300 million and a minimum average daily turnover for the last 6 months (or since the initial public offering launch date for “Significant Initial Public Offerings” as defined by the Index Provider) greater than or equal to $1 million in order to be eligible for inclusion in the Index. The Index only includes companies listed in the United States.

From the eligible universe, the Index Provider identifies U.S. Infrastructure Development Companies by applying a proprietary analysis that consists of two primary components: theme identification and company analysis. As part of the theme identification process, the Index Provider analyses industry reports, investment research and spending trends related to infrastructure development in order to establish the themes that are expected to provide the most exposure to increased investment in U.S. infrastructure. As of 1 February 2023, the Index Provider has identified the following four U.S. infrastructure development themes: (1) Construction and Engineering Services, (2) Raw Materials and Composites, (3) Products and Equipment, (4) Industrial Transportation (collectively, “U.S. Infrastructure Development Themes”).

In the second step of the process, companies are analysed based on two primary criteria: revenue exposure and primary business operations. A company is eligible for inclusion in the Index if (i) it derives a significant portion of its revenue from the U.S. Infrastructure Development Themes, or (ii) it has stated its primary business to be in products and services focused on the U.S. Infrastructure Development Themes, as determined by the Index Provider. Furthermore, only companies that generate greater than 50% of revenues from the United States as of the index selection date, as determined by the Index Provider, are eligible for inclusion in the Index. Accordingly, the Fund assets will be concentrated in companies that provide exposure to U.S. infrastructure development.

The Investment Manager uses a “passive” or indexing approach to try to achieve the Fund’s investment objective. The Fund does not try to “outperform” the Index and does not seek temporary defensive positions when markets decline or appear overvalued.

Where it is not possible or practicable for the Fund to invest directly in or continue to hold all of the component securities of the Index (for reasons such as, but not limited to, where this would involve difficulties or substantial costs, where one or more securities in the Index becomes temporarily illiquid or unavailable, or as a result of legal restrictions or regulatory limitations that apply to the Fund but not the Index) and/or where consistent with its investment objective, the Fund may also invest in the following additional assets subject to the conditions and within the limits laid down by the Central Bank:

- Depositary Receipts relating either to component securities of the Index or to equity securities of the type referred to above;
- FDIs – namely, total return “unfunded” OTC Swaps and exchange-traded equity futures – which may be used for investment purposes (such as gaining exposure to the Index and/or any particular constituents of the Index) in accordance with the terms set out in the sections entitled “Fund Investments”, “Unfunded OTC Swap Model” and Schedule II of the Prospectus. While the Fund may invest up to 100% of its Net Asset Value in total return “unfunded” OTC Swaps, it is not expected that this flexibility will be used. The Fund will only invest in FDIs as provided for in the RMP prepared by the Investment Manager in respect of the Fund and filed with the Central Bank;
- Equity securities which are not constituents of the Index, which, in the opinion of the Investment Manager, are expected to provide similar performance and risk characteristics to the Index constituent(s) which are not possible or practicable for the Fund to invest directly in or continue to hold; and
- Collective investments schemes that have a similar strategy to the Fund or allow similar exposure to the Index constituents.

The equity securities and FDI investments of the Fund will be listed, traded and dealt with on one or more of the Regulated Markets set out in Schedule 1 to the Prospectus.

The Fund may, in addition, employ other techniques relating to transferable securities, including entering into securities lending transactions, investing in repurchase and reverse repurchase transactions and collective investment schemes, for the purpose of efficient portfolio management only, in accordance with the terms set out in the section entitled “Efficient Portfolio Management Techniques” and Schedule III of the Prospectus. While the Fund may invest up to 100% of its Net Asset Value in repurchase and reverse repurchase transactions it is not expected that this flexibility will be used.

The maximum proportion of the Net Asset Value of the Fund that can be subject to securities lending is 50%. The proportion of the Net Asset Value of the Fund that will be subject to securities lending is expected to range from 0% to 50%.

The maximum proportion of the Net Asset Value of the Fund that can be subject to repurchase transactions is 20%. The proportion of the Net Asset Value of the Fund that will be subject to repurchase transactions is expected to be 0%.

The maximum proportion of the Net Asset Value of the Fund that can be subject to reverse repurchase transactions is 20%. The proportion of the Net Asset Value of the Fund that will be subject to reverse repurchase transactions is expected to be 0%.

The maximum proportion of the Net Asset Value of the Fund that can be subject to total return swaps is 20%. The proportion of the Net Asset Value of the Fund that will be subject to total return swaps is expected to be 0%.

As at the date of this Fund Supplement, to the extent the Fund undertakes securities lending, the Fund will receive 87% of the associated revenue generated from securities lending activities and the remaining 13% will be retained by the securities lending agent (representing the attendant direct and indirect operational costs and fees of the securities lending). In circumstances where the attendant direct and indirect operational costs and fees of the securities lending are less than 13% of the revenue generated from securities lending activities, the excess revenue will be returned to the Fund.

Base Currency

The Base Currency of the Fund is USD.

There is no guarantee that the Fund will achieve its investment objective.

It is recommended that an investment in the Fund should not constitute a substantial proportion of an investment portfolio and may not be appropriate for all investors.

PROFILE OF A TYPICAL INVESTOR

A typical investor in the Fund would want to take a long or short-term exposure to the market covered by the Index and would be prepared to accept the medium level risks associated with an investment of this type, including the potential volatility of such market. Such an investor is also one that is able to assess the merits and risks of an investment in the Shares of the relevant Class of the Fund.

RISK FACTORS

Investment in the Fund carries with it a degree of risk including, but not limited to, the risks described in the "Risk Factors" section of the Prospectus including particularly Securities Lending Risk, Concentration Risk, Risk of Investing in Developed Markets, Risk of Investing in the United States, New Fund Risk and the following:

Given the investment strategy of the Fund and its risk profile, the likely impact of sustainability risks on the Fund's returns is expected to be low.

Associated Risks Related to Investing in Infrastructure Development Companies: The Fund invests in infrastructure development companies, including companies involved in construction, engineering, production of raw materials, production and distribution of heavy construction equipment and industrial transportation. General risks of infrastructure development companies include the general state of the economy, intense competition, consolidation, domestic and international politics, and excess capacity. In addition, infrastructure development companies may also be significantly affected by overall capital spending levels (including both private and public sector spending), economic cycles, technical obsolescence, delays in modernisation, labour relations and government regulations. Some infrastructure development companies may rely heavily on local, state or national government contracts, and are therefore subject to higher degrees of political risk and could be negatively impacted by changes in government policies or a deterioration in government balance sheets in the future. The customers and/or suppliers of Infrastructure Development companies may be concentrated in a particular country, region or industry. Any adverse event affecting one of these countries, regions or industries could have a negative impact on infrastructure development companies. Through its portfolio companies' customers and suppliers, the Fund is specifically exposed to North American Economic Risk.

Currency Risk: The Fund may invest in securities denominated in foreign currencies other than in the Base Currency of the Fund. Because the Fund's NAV is determined in U.S. dollars, the Fund's NAV could decline if currencies of the underlying securities depreciate against the U.S. dollar or if there are delays or limits on repatriation of such currencies. Currency exchange rates can be very volatile and can change quickly and unpredictably. As a result, the Fund's NAV may change quickly and without warning, which could have a significant negative impact on the Fund.

Risks Related to Investing in the Industrials Sector: Companies in the industrials sector are subject to fluctuations in supply and demand for their specific product or service. The products of manufacturing companies may face product obsolescence due to rapid technological developments. Government regulation, world events and economic conditions affect the performance of companies in the industrials sector. Companies also may be adversely affected by environmental damage and product liability claims. Companies in the Industrial Sector face increased risk from trade agreements between countries that develop these technologies and countries in which customers of these technologies are based. Lack of resolution or potential imposition of trade tariffs may hinder on the companies' ability to successfully deploy their inventories.

Associated Risks Related to Investing in Infrastructure Development Companies: The Fund may invest in infrastructure development companies, including companies involved in construction, engineering, production of raw materials, production and distribution of heavy construction equipment and industrial transportation. General risks of infrastructure development companies include the general state of the economy, intense competition, consolidation, domestic and international politics, and excess capacity. In addition, infrastructure development companies may also be significantly affected by overall capital spending levels (including both private and public sector spending), economic cycles, technical obsolescence, delays in modernisation, labour relations and government regulations. Some infrastructure development companies may rely heavily on local, state or national government contracts, and are therefore subject to higher degrees of political risk and could be negatively impacted by changes in government policies or a deterioration in government balance sheets in the future. The customers and/or suppliers of infrastructure development companies may be concentrated in a particular country, region or industry. Any adverse event affecting one of these countries, regions or industries could have a negative impact on infrastructure development companies.

RISK MANAGEMENT

The Fund's global exposure, being the incremental exposure and leverage generated by the Fund through its use of FDI, shall be calculated on at least a daily basis using the commitment approach and, in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank, may at no time exceed 100% of the Fund's Net Asset Value. As noted in the "Investment Policy" section above, the Fund's use of FDI is an ancillary element of the investment policy in that it is an alternative means of gaining exposure to the Index, or one or more of the constituents of the Index, in circumstances where direct investment in the constituents of the Index is not possible, practicable or desirable. Regardless of whether exposure to the underlying constituents is obtained by direct investment in the constituents, or by gaining exposure to the constituents through the use of FDI, the same notional value shall be committed to the investment by the Fund. Accordingly, it is not expected that the Fund will be leveraged.

THE INDEX

General Description

The Index is designed to measure the performance of U.S. Infrastructure Development Companies, as defined by the Index Provider .

The eligible universe of the Index includes the most liquid and investable companies in accordance with the standard market capitalisation and liquidity criteria associated with developed markets, as defined by Indxx LLC. As of 1 February 2023, companies must have a minimum market capitalisation of $300 million and a minimum average daily turnover for the last 6 months (or since the initial public offering launch date for “Significant Initial Public Offerings” as defined by the Index Provider) greater than or equal to $1 million in order to be eligible for inclusion in the Index. The Index only includes companies listed in the United States.

From the eligible universe, Indxx LLC identifies U.S. Infrastructure Development Companies by applying a proprietary analysis that consists of two primary components: theme identification and company analysis. As part of the theme identification process, Indxx LLC analyses industry reports, investment research and spending trends related to infrastructure development in order to establish the themes that are expected to provide the most exposure to increased investment in U.S. infrastructure. As of 1 February 2023, Indxx LLC has identified the following four U.S. infrastructure development themes: (1) Construction and Engineering Services, (2) Raw Materials and Composites, (3) Products and Equipment, and (4) Industrial Transportation (collectively, “U.S. Infrastructure Development Themes”).

In the second step of the process, companies are analysed based on two primary criteria: revenue exposure and primary business operations. A company is eligible for inclusion in the Index if (i) it derives a significant portion of its revenue from the U.S. Infrastructure Development Themes, or (ii) it has stated its primary business to be in products and services focused on the U.S. Infrastructure Development Themes, as determined by Indxx LLC. Furthermore, only companies that generate greater than 50% of revenues from the U.S. as of the Index selection date, as determined by Indxx LLC, are eligible for inclusion in the Index.

The Index is weighted according to a modified capitalisation weighting methodology and is reconstituted and rebalanced annually. At the annual rebalance, a capping methodology is applied to reduce concentration in individual securities and increase diversification of the Index whereby a single security cap of 3% and a single security weight floor of 0.3% is applied. Any security with a weight over 3% is allocated a 3% weight, and any security with a weight under 0.3% is allocated to 0.3%. Excess weight resulting from the capping mechanism is proportionately distributed among the remaining securities. The Index may include large-, mid- or small-capitalisation companies, and components primarily include industrials and materials companies.

The information set out above is a summary of the principal features of the Index and does not purport to be an exhaustive description. Further information can be found in “Indxx U.S. Infrastructure Development v2 Index Methodology” (the “Index Methodology”) which is available, along with the constituents and weights of the Index at: <https://www.indxx.com/indxx-u.s.-infrastructure-development-v2-index-tr>.

Index Rebalancing

The Index shall be rebalanced on an annual basis at the close of last trading day of January each year. It is possible that additional companies not presently represented in the Index will be added and that one or more companies presently represented will be removed at the time of the annual basis rebalance dates.

Investors should note that the respective weights of each of the constituents of the Index are expected to fluctuate in-between the periodic rebalance dates of the Index. Please see the Prospectus section entitled “Circumstances where the weighting of an Index constituent exceeds the applicable concentration limits prescribed by the UCITS Regulations” for details of the procedure to be adopted when the weighting of any constituent of the Index exceeds the permitted investment restrictions. During each rebalance, each constituent is subject to a maximum weight of 3% and a minimum weight of 0.30%.

Index Provider

The Benchmark Administrator is Indxx LLC and the Index is calculated by Indxx LLC.

The Index is sponsored by Indxx LLC as the Index Provider, which is an organisation that is independent of the Fund and Global X Management Company LLC, the Investment Manager for the Fund. The Index Provider determines the relative weightings of the securities in the Index and publishes information regarding the market value of the Index.
