Reasons to Own

- Fully Allocated – The Trust only holds fully allocated and unencumbered precious metals – no exceptions.
- Redeemable for Metals – Unitholders have the ability to redeem their units for physical silver bullion on a monthly basis, subject to certain minimum requirements.<sup>1</sup>
- Trustworthy Storage – The Trust's metals will be held in custody by the Royal Canadian Mint, a Federal Crown Corporation of the Government of Canada.
- Potential Tax Advantage – The Trust may offer a potential tax advantage for certain non-corporate U.S. investors. Gains realized on the sale of the Trust's units can be taxed at a capital gains rate of 15%/20%<sup>2</sup> versus the 28% collectibles rate applied to most precious metals ETFs, coins and bars.
- Easy to Buy, Sell and Own – Trust units can be purchased on any open trading day for the New York Stock Exchange or Toronto Stock Exchange. No need for investors to handle, secure or protect physical metal.
- A Liquid Investment – With an average daily trading volume of over $370.3 million in December 2025, trust units are liquid and can be bought and sold on any open trading day at the New York Stock Exchange or Toronto Stock Exchange.

FAVORABLE TAX ADVANTAGES

For U.S. non-corporate investors who hold units for more than one year and make a timely Qualified Election Form (QEF) election, gains realized on the sale of the Trust's units are currently taxed at the long-term capital gains rate of 15% (20% for higher income taxpayers), versus the maximum of 28% applied against most precious metals investments that are classified as collectibles for tax purposes.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>2</sup> For more information, please see "Tax Considerations-U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations" in the Prospectus and always consult your tax accountant regarding your particular situation.

The Sprott Physical Silver Trust is generally exposed to multiple risks that have been both identified and described in the Prospectus. Please refer to the Prospectus for a description of these risks. This material must be preceded or accompanied by a prospectus. Precious metals investments are more volatile on a daily basis and have higher headline risk than other sectors as they tend to be more sensitive to economic data, political and regulatory events as well as underlying commodity prices. Precious metals investments have price fluctuations based on short-term dynamics partly driven by demand/supply and also by investment flows. Precious metals investments tend to react more sensitively to global events and economic data than other sectors.

Sprott Asset Management LP is the investment manager to the Sprott Physical Bullion Trusts (the "Trusts"). Important information about the Trusts, including the investment objectives and strategies, purchase options, applicable management fees, and expenses, is contained in the prospectus. Please read the document carefully before investing. The indicated rates of return are the historical annual compounded total returns including changes in unit value and reinvestment of all distributions and do not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or operational charges or income taxes payable by any unitholder that would have reduced returns. You will usually pay brokerage fees to your dealer if you purchase or sell units of the Trusts on the Toronto Stock Exchange ("TSX") or the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE"). If the units are purchased or sold on the TSX or the NYSE, investors may pay more than the current net asset value when buying units or shares of the Trusts and may receive less than the current net asset value when selling them. Investment funds are not guaranteed; their values change frequently. Past performance is not indicative of future results.
