WisdomTree Bloomberg WTI Crude Oil

Investment Objective

WisdomTree Bloomberg WTI Crude Oil is a fully collateralised, UCITS eligible Exchange Traded Commodity (ETC) designed to provide investors with a total return exposure to WTI Crude Oil futures contracts. The ETC provides a total return comprised of the daily performance of the Bloomberg WTI Crude Oil Sub Index (BCOMCL), plus the interest revenue adjusted to reflect fees and costs associated with the product. For example, if the Bloomberg WTI Crude Oil Sub Index rises by 1% over a day, then the ETC will rise by 1%, excluding fees. However if the Bloomberg WTI Crude Oil Sub Index falls by 1% over a day, then the ETC will fall by 1%, excluding fees.

Index Description

The Bloomberg WTI Crude Oil Subindex is designed to reflect the movement in the price of the WTI Crude Oil futures contracts used in the Bloomberg Commodity Index. The index measures excess return performance based on the futures price performance and the roll return. However, the ETC provides a total return performance which also includes the interest revenue on the collateralised amount.

Potential Benefits

Gain exposure to the performance of WTI Crude Oil.

UCITS eligible and fully collateralised.

Transparent performance and fees.

Easy to invest: Everything in one product which does not require the investor to manage storage, insurance or delivery of WTI Crude Oil.

Risk Management: You cannot lose more than the amount invested.

Liquidity: Trades on exchange, with multiple authorised participants (APs) and market makers (MMs).

Potential Risks

An investment in an ETP involves a degree of risk. Any decision to invest should be based on the information contained in the relevant prospectus. Prospective investors should obtain independent accounting, tax and legal advice and should consult their professional advisers to ascertain the suitability of this ETP as an investment to their own circumstances.

This ETP is structured as a debt security and not as shares (equity) and can be created and redeemed on demand by authorised participants and traded on exchange just like shares in a company. This ETP is not a UCITS product.

Market Risk: The value of securities in this ETP is directly affected by increases and decreases in the value of the Index. Accordingly, the value of a security may go up or down and a security holder may lose some or all of the amount invested but can not lose more than the amount invested.

Liquidity risk: There can be no certainty that securities can always be bought or sold on a stock exchange or that the market price at which the securities may be traded on a stock exchange will always accurately reflect the performance of the Index.

Currency Risk: The price of securities in this ETP is generally quoted in USD. To the extent that a security holder purchases securities in another currency, the value will be affected by changes in the exchange rate.

Counterparty risk: The Issuer is reliant on there being swap counterparties available to enter into swap agreements on a continuing basis and, if no swap counterparties are willing to do so, the ETP will not be able to achieve its investment policy of tracking the performance of the Index.

Credit Risk: The Issuer is subject to the risk that third party service providers may fail to return property or collateral belonging to the Issuer or pay money due to the issuer. The ETP is backed by swaps. The payment obligations of the swap counterparties to the Issuer are protected by collateral held which is marked to market daily. The collateral is held in segregated accounts at The Bank of New York Mellon. In the event a swap counterparty defaults, the proceeds from realisation of the collateral may be less than what the investor expects. Details of the collateral held can be found in the Collateral section of the WisdomTree website (www.wisdomtree.com).

The performance of commodity indices may differ significantly from spot commodity prices, which are often quoted in the financial press, as the spot in itself is not investable. An investment in commodities may experience high volatility and should be considered as a longer term investment.

Please see the risks factors section of the Prospectus for a more detailed discussion of the potential risks

Glossary

Authorised participant: Banks or other financial institutions that act as intermediaries between issuers of securities and other investors or intermediaries. Authorised participants subscribe for and redeem securities directly with the Issuer and buy and sell those securities to investors intermediaries either directly or via stock exchanges.

Collateral held: Cash or other transferable securities which are held independently to reduce the Issuer's credit risk in respect of any single counterparty. For example, if the Index (tracked by the ETP) increases, the amount owed to the Issuer by the swap counterparty increases and therefore additional collateral is transferred by the swap counterparty to reduce the increased risk to the ETP of that counterparty.

Exposure: An ETC has exposure to an index or commodity if its value is directly affected by movements in the price of that index commodity. Exposure to an index or commodity can be achieved in various different ways. This ETC aims to provide exposure to the Index using swaps.

Market Makers: Banks or other financial institutions that act as intermediaries between buyers and sellers of securities. They buy and sell securities to investors intermediaries either directly or via stock exchanges.

Swap counterparty: Typically a large bank or financial institution with whom the Issuer enters into swaps.

An investment in exchange-traded products (“ETPs”) is dependent on the performance of the underlying index, less costs, but it is not expected to match that performance precisely. ETPs involve numerous risks including among others, general market risks relating to the relevant underlying index, credit risks on the provider of index swaps utilised in the ETP, exchange rate risks, interest rate risks, inflationary risks, liquidity risks and legal and regulatory risks.
