Investment objectives of each Fund may be found in the relevant Fund's Supplement.

2. Basis of Preparation

The financial statements have been prepared for the financial year ended 31 December 2025. These financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis under the historical cost convention as modified by the revaluation of financial assets and financial liabilities held at fair value through profit or loss. The comparative information was prepared on a going concern basis.

Statement of compliance
These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting standards generally accepted in Ireland including Financial Reporting Standard ("FRS") 102; the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland, the provisions of the UCITS Regulations and Irish Statute comprising the Irish Companies Act 2014. Accounting standards generally accepted in Ireland in preparing financial statements giving a true and fair view are those published by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Ireland and issued by the Financial Reporting Council ("FRC").

A Cash Flow Statement has not been prepared by the Company as all of the conditions required by the exemption contained in FRS 102, Section 7.1A have been met. The conditions required are:

i) substantially all of the entity's investments are highly liquid;

ii) substantially all of the entity's investments are carried at market value; and

iii) the entity provides a Statement of Changes in Net Assets.

The format and wording of certain line items on the primary statements contains departures from the Guidelines of the Irish Companies Act to reflect this Company's structure as an Investment Fund.

All references to net assets throughout the documents refers to Net Assets Attributable to Holders of Redeemable Participating Shares unless otherwise stated.

Functional and presentation currency
The financial statements of the individual Funds are prepared in the functional currency of the respective Fund. The functional currency of each Fund is that as disclosed on the primary statements of the respective Fund. The Company has adopted Euro as the presentation currency of the overall financial statements.

Transactions in foreign currencies are translated at the foreign currency exchange rate ruling at the date of the transaction. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the foreign currency closing exchange rate ruling at the Statement of Financial Position date. Non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies that are measured at fair value are translated at the foreign currency exchange rates ruling at the dates that the values were determined. Foreign currency exchange differences arising on combination translation are recognised in the Statement of Changes in Net Assets Attributable to Holders of Redeemable Participating Shares in "Foreign currency translation" line. Foreign currency exchange differences relating to investments at fair value through profit or loss and derivative financial instruments are included in gains and losses on investments. All other foreign currency exchange differences relating to monetary items, including cash, are presented in the Statement of Comprehensive Income.

Foreign exchange gain and losses on financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are recognised together with other changes in fair value. Included in the Statement of Comprehensive Income line item “Net gains/(losses) on investments at fair value through profit or loss during the financial year” are also net foreign exchange gains and losses on monetary financial assets and financial liabilities.

3. Material Accounting Policies

The accounting policies set out below have been applied consistently to all years and periods presented in these financial statements.

(a) Financial instruments

(i) Fair Value Measurement, Recognition and Derecognition
The Company has elected to apply the recognition and measurement provisions of IAS 39 and the disclosure requirements of sections 11 and 12 of FRS 102.

The majority of the Fund's financial instruments are classified in categories that require measurement at fair value through profit or loss, with the basis for arriving at this position being set out below.

Financial instruments are measured initially at fair value (transaction price). Transaction costs on financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are expensed to the Statement of Comprehensive Income immediately.

Subsequent to initial recognition, all instruments classified at fair value through profit or loss are measured at fair value with changes in their fair value recognised in the Statement of Comprehensive Income.

Financial assets classified as receivables are carried at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method, less impairment losses, if any.

Financial liabilities, other than those at fair value through profit or loss, are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method. Financial liabilities arising from the redeemable shares issued by the Company are carried at the redemption amount representing the investors’ right to a residual interest in the Company’s assets.

The Company recognises financial assets and financial liabilities on the trade date, when all significant rights and access to the benefits from the assets and the exposure to the risks inherent in those benefits are transferred to the Company.

The Company derecognises financial assets when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or it transfers the right to receive the contractual cash flows in a transaction in which substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial assets are transferred or in which the Company neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership and does not retain control of the financial assets.

On derecognition of a financial asset, the difference between the carrying amount of the asset (or the carrying amount allocated to the portion of the asset that is derecognised) and the consideration received (including any new asset obtained less any new liability assumed) is recognised in profit or loss. Any interest in such transferred financial assets that is created or retained by the Company is recognised as a separate asset or liability.

The Company derecognises a financial liability when its contractual obligations are discharged, cancelled or expire.

On derecognition of a financial liability, the difference between the carrying amount extinguished and the consideration paid (including any non-cash asset transferred or liabilities assumed) is recognised in profit or loss.

(ii) Categorisation
In accordance with IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement the Company has classified its investments as financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss category.

The category of financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss comprises:

- Financial instruments held-for-trading. These include total return swaps, exchange traded funds, mutual funds / open-ended funds, futures contracts, forward foreign currency exchange contracts, equities and bonds included as financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss in the Statement of Financial Position. All derivatives in a net receivable position (positive fair value), are reported as financial assets. All derivatives in a net payable position (negative fair value), are reported as financial liabilities.
- Financial instruments designated at fair value through profit or loss upon initial recognition. These include financial assets that are not held for trading purposes and which may be sold.

Financial assets that are classified as receivables include cash and cash equivalents, cash held with brokers and accounts receivables that are held at amortised cost.

Financial liabilities that are not at fair value through profit or loss, if any, include accounts payable.

(iii) Fair value measurement principles
If a quoted market price is not available on a recognised stock exchange or from a broker/dealer for non-exchange traded financial instruments, the fair value of the instrument is estimated using valuation techniques, including use of recent arm's length market transactions, reference to the current fair value of another instrument that is substantially the same, discounted cash flow techniques, option pricing models or any other valuation technique that provides a reliable estimate of prices obtained in actual market transactions.

The fair value of derivatives that are not exchange-traded is estimated at the amount that the Company would receive or pay to terminate the contract at the Statement of Financial Position date taking into account current market conditions (volatility, appropriate yield curve) and the current creditworthiness of the counterparties.

The Company classifies its financial instruments using a fair value measurement that reflects the significance of inputs used in making measurements, as set out in Note 11.

(iv) Total return swaps
"Total Return Swap" is the generic name for any non-traditional swap where one party agrees to pay the other the "total return" of a defined underlying reference obligation, usually in return for receiving a stream of SOFR based cashflows. The total return swap may be applied to any underlying reference obligation but is most commonly used with equity indices, single stocks, bonds and defined portfolios of loans and mortgages.

The total return swaps held by the Company are exposed to fluctuations on the underlying reference obligations. However, in contrast to the typical total return swap there are no periodic payments to the swap counterparty. The total return swaps are recorded as financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss in the Statement of Financial Position.

The fair value of these total return swaps is determined by the Directors based on the mark to market valuation provided by the counterparty. In determining the mark to market valuation, the counterparty makes assumptions that are based on market conditions existing on each Statement of Financial Position date and uses valuation techniques which include the use of comparable recent arm's length transactions, discounted cash flow techniques, option pricing models and other valuation techniques commonly used by market participants.

3. Material Accounting Policies cont/d

(v) Cash, cash equivalents and bank overdrafts
Cash comprises current deposits and overdrafts with banks. Cash equivalents are short-term highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash, are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, and are held for the purpose of meeting short-term cash commitments rather than for investment or other purposes.

Cash and cash equivalents are carried at amortised cost. Bank overdrafts are presented separately in the Statement of Financial Position.

(vi) Cash held with brokers and cash due to brokers
Cash held with and due to brokers is cash held by or on behalf of the Fund for initial margin requirements for futures contracts, forward foreign currency exchange contracts and swaps.

(vii) Futures contracts
Initial margin deposits are made upon entering into futures contracts and are generally made in cash or cash equivalents. The fair value of futures contracts is based upon their current quoted daily settlement prices on the relevant exchange as of the Statement of Financial Position date. Changes in the value of open futures contracts are recognised as unrealised gains or losses on futures contracts until the contracts are terminated, at which time realised gains and losses are recognised. For each relevant Fund, gains or losses on open futures contracts are shown in the Portfolio of Investments of each relevant Fund and as appropriate, in the Statement of Financial Position as financial assets or liabilities at fair value through profit or loss.

(viii) Forward foreign currency exchange contracts
The fair value of open forward foreign currency exchange contracts is calculated as the difference between the contracted rate and the current forward rate that would close out the contract on the Statement of Financial Position date. For each relevant Fund, gains or losses on open forward foreign currency exchange contracts are included in the financial assets or liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, as appropriate, in the Statement of Financial Position and are shown in the Portfolio of Investments of each relevant Fund.

(b) Bank interest income / interest expense
All bank interest is recognised in the Statement of Comprehensive Income as it accrues, using the original effective interest rate of the instrument calculated at the acquisition or origination date.

Bank interest includes the amortisation of any discount or premium, transaction costs or other differences between the initial carrying amount of an interest-bearing instrument and its amount at maturity calculated on an effective interest rate basis. Bank interest on debt instruments is accrued using the original effective interest rate ("EIR"). The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts the estimated future cash payments and receipts through the expected life of the financial instrument on initial recognition. Bank interest on debt instruments is classified under “Income from investments at fair value through profit or loss” line item within the Statement of Comprehensive Income. Bank interest is recognised on a gross basis and is classified to “Bank interest” in the Statement of Comprehensive Income. Bank interest is recognised on a gross basis, including withholding tax, if any. Bank expense is recognised in the Statement of Comprehensive Income for bank overdraft and all debt instruments using the effective interest method and is classified on the line item “Bank interest and charges”.

(c) Expenses
All expenses, including management fees and platform fee are recognised in the Statement of Comprehensive Income on an accrual basis.

(d) Gains and losses on investments
Realised gains and losses on sales of investments are calculated on the average book cost. Realised and unrealised gains and losses on investments arising during the financial year are presented in the Statement of Comprehensive Income.

Net gain from financial instruments at FVTPL includes realised and unrealised fair value changes and foreign exchange differences but excludes interest income, dividend income and dividend expense on short positions.

3. Material Accounting Policies cont/d

(e) Listed investments
The fair value of an Investment which is quoted, listed or normally dealt in on a Regulated Market shall be the closing sale price on such Regulated Market as at the Valuation Point or the last traded price when no closing sale price is available.

(f) Bonds
The Fund utilises the closing reference Benchmark prices at the year-end date for Bonds. In circumstances where the benchmark prices are not available, valuation of bonds is obtained by means of observable prices in quoted or listed value or by the prices set by brokers/intermediaries in accordance with the Management Company's standard valuation policy/pricing matrix.

(g) Taxation
Interest, dividend income and capital gains by the Company may be subject to withholding tax imposed in the country of origin. Investment income is recorded gross of such taxes. Please refer to Note 6 for details.

(h) Participating redeemable shares
The Company classifies financial instruments issued as financial liabilities in accordance with the substance of the contractual terms of the instruments. The redeemable shares provide investors with the right to require redemption for cash at a value proportionate to the investor's share in the Company's net assets at each redemption date and also in the event of the Company's liquidation.

The redeemable shares are classified as financial liabilities and are measured at a value proportionate to the investor's share in the Company's net assets at each redemption date.

(i) Distributions to holders of redeemable shares
Distributions payable to holders of redeemable shares are recognised through profit or loss as finance costs in the Statement of Comprehensive Income on the ex-date.

(j) Bond interest income
Bond interest income earned on fixed interest securities is recognised in the Statement of Comprehensive Income using the effective interest method.

(k) Dividend income
Dividend income is recognised when the rights to receive income is established. Usually this is the ex-dividend date for equity securities. Dividend income from equity securities designated at fair value through profit or loss is recognised on a gross basis in the "Income from investments at fair value through profit or loss" line in the Statement of Comprehensive Income.

(l) Offsetting
Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the Statement of Financial Position when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

The legally enforceable right must be based on future events and must not be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the Company or the counterparty.

The Company was not subject to master netting arrangement with its derivative counterparties during the financial years ended 31 December 2025 or 31 December 2024.

(m) Securities lending income in the Supplement) and is accrued daily and payable monthly. The Platform Fees paid during the financial year were EUR 124,454,171 (31 December 2024: EUR 102,303,635). The Platform Fees accrued at the financial year end were EUR 11,635,148 (31 December 2024: EUR 10,819,217).

The Platform Costs covered by the arrangement are (i) fees and expenses payable to the Depositary and the Administrator and (ii) other Administrative Expenses (as more fully described below).

Other Administrative Expenses include but are not limited to, the costs and expenses relating to the establishment of a Fund, the fees and expenses of sub-custodians which will be at normal commercial rates, organisation and registration costs, licence fees payable to licence holders of an Index, certain taxes, expenses for legal and auditing services, cost of any proposed listings, maintaining such listings, printing Share certificates, Shareholders' reports and prospectuses, preparation, maintenance, translation and updating of investors fact-sheets for the Funds, monitoring the performance of the Funds including the costs of any software associated with such monitoring, maintenance of the website in respect of the Company and the Funds which provides investors with information on the Company and the Funds, including but not limited to, provision of Net Asset Values, secondary market prices and updated prospectuses, fees and all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses of the Directors, foreign registration fees and fees relating to the maintenance of such registrations including translation costs and local legal costs and other expenses due to supervisory authorities in various jurisdictions and local representatives' remunerations in foreign jurisdictions which will be at normal commercial rates, the costs of any marketing agencies appointed by the Management Company to provide certain marketing and distribution services to the Company, insurance, brokerage costs which are applicable to the Fund generally and not those which can be attributed to a specific investment transaction and the costs of publication of the Net Asset Value and such other information which is required to be published in the different jurisdictions, and all costs relating to the distribution of the Funds in the different jurisdictions.

The Platform Costs only cover the payment of invoices of legal advisers, local paying agents and translators provided these invoices do not in aggregate exceed the threshold of Euro ten Million (EUR 10,000,000) per calendar year across all Funds of the Company in respect of which a Platform Fee arrangement is in place. Amounts in excess of this threshold will be borne by the relevant Fund.

In addition, since the Platform Costs will be determined at the outset on a yearly basis by the Company and the Platform Fee Arranger, investors should note that the amount paid to the Platform Fee Arranger may at year end be greater than if the Company would have paid directly the relevant expenses. Conversely, the expenses the Company would have had to pay might be greater than the Platform Costs and the effective amount paid by the Company to the Platform Fee Arranger would be less. The Platform Costs will be determined and will correspond to anticipated costs fixed on terms no less favourable for each Fund than on an arm's length basis by the Company and the Platform Fee Arranger and will be disclosed in the relevant Supplement.

The Platform Costs do not include the following fees, expenses and costs:

- the fees and expenses of a Distributor;
- the Management Company Fee;
- any taxes or fiscal charges which the Company may be required to pay, if it should be payable, any value added tax or similar sales or services tax payable by the Company (VAT) (all such taxes or fiscal charges), unless otherwise specified in the relevant Supplement;
- expenses arising out of any advertising or promotional activities in connection with the Company; nor
- any costs and expenses incurred outside of the Company's ordinary course of business such as legal fees incurred in prosecuting or defending, a claim or allegation, by or against, the Company.

5. Transaction costs

Transaction costs are incremental costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, issue or disposal of a financial asset or financial liability. An incremental cost is one that would not have been incurred if the entity had not acquired, issued or disposed of the financial instrument. When a financial asset or financial liability is recognised initially, an entity shall measure it at its fair value and transaction cost that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial asset and financial liability carried at fair value through profit or loss are expensed as incurred.

Transaction costs on the purchase and sale of bonds, forward foreign currency exchange contracts and swaps are included in the purchase and sale price of the investment. They cannot be practically or reliably gathered as they are embedded in the cost of the investment and cannot be separately verified or disclosed. Similarly custody transaction costs form part of the Total Expense Ratio ("TER") of the Fund but are not distinguishable from the other expenses captured within the TER. Transaction costs on purchases and sales of equities and futures are included in Net gains/(losses) on investments at fair value through profit or loss during the financial year in the Statement of Comprehensive Income for each Fund.

For the financial year ended 31 December 2025, the Company incurred custody and transaction costs on other purchases and sales as follows:

6. Taxation

The Company is an investment undertaking as defined in Section 739B of the Taxes Consolidation Act, 1997. Therefore, the Company will not be liable to Irish tax in respect of its income and gains, other than on the occurrence of a chargeable event. A chargeable event includes any distribution payments to shareholders or any encashment, redemption or transfer of shares or the ending period for which the investment was held.

Generally a chargeable event arises on any distribution, redemption, repurchase, cancellation, transfer of shares or the ending of a "Relevant Period". A "Relevant Period" is an eight year period beginning with the acquisition of the shares by the shareholder and each subsequent period of eight years beginning immediately after the preceding Relevant Period.

A gain on a chargeable event does not arise in respect of:

a) a shareholder who is not an Irish resident and not ordinarily resident in Ireland at the time of the chargeable event, provided the necessary signed statutory declarations are held by the Company;

b) certain exempted Irish tax resident investors who have provided the Company with the necessary signed statutory declarations;

c) an exchange of shares arising on a qualifying amalgamation or reconstruction of the Company with another fund;

d) any transactions in relation to shares held in a recognised clearing system as designated by order of the Revenue Commissioners of Ireland;

e) certain exchanges of shares between spouses and former spouses on the occasion of judicial separation and/or divorce;

f) an exchange by a shareholder, effected by way of an arm's length bargain where no payment is made to the shareholder of shares in the Company for other shares in the Company.

Capital gains, dividends and interest (if any) received on investment made by the Company may be subject to withholding taxes imposed by the country from which the investment income/gains are received and such taxes may not be recoverable by the Company or its shareholders.

However, some dividend and interest income received by the Fund may be subject to withholding tax imposed in certain countries of origin. Income that is subject to such tax is recognised gross of the taxes and the corresponding withholding tax is recognised as tax expense.

In the absence of an appropriate declaration, the Company will be liable for Irish tax on the occurrence of a chargeable event, and the Company reserves its right to withhold such taxes from the relevant shareholders.

11. Financial Instruments and Associated Risks

General Risk Management Process
In accordance with paragraph 34.23 of FRS 102, this note details the way in which the Company manages risks associated with the use of financial instruments.

In pursuing their respective objectives, the Funds hold a number of financial instruments:
1. Fixed interest and equity securities. These are held in accordance with each Fund's objectives.
2. Cash, liquid resources and short term debtors and creditors that arise directly from the Funds' operations.
3. Derivative instruments.

Market risk is managed according to the requirements of the UCITS Regulation, CESR 10/788. Global exposure is monitored under commitment approach.

Risk can be separated into the following components: market risk, credit risk and liquidity risk. Each type of risk is discussed in turn and qualitative and quantitative analyses are provided where relevant to give the reader an understanding of the risk management methods used by the Management Company and the Board of Directors.

Market Risk
Market risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market price. It includes currency risk, interest rate risk and price risk. Market risk arises mainly from uncertainty about future prices of the financial instruments held. It represents the potential loss the Funds might suffer through holding market positions in the face of price movements.

Although the exposure to market price volatility on Xtrackers MSCI GCC Select Swap UCITS ETF, Xtrackers NASDAQ 100 Swap UCITS ETF, Xtrackers S&P 500 Equal Weight Swap UCITS ETF and Xtrackers S&P 500 Swap II UCITS ETF are hedged by the swaps entered into, these Funds are still exposed to price fluctuations in the underlying basket of indices on which the swap returns are based.

Funds use the commitment approach for the sensitivity of the Funds to movements in market price.

The market risk information for the Company for the financial years ended 31 December 2025 and 31 December 2024 is given on a disaggregated sub-fund basis on pages 1293 to 1296.

In respect of the Funds using the commitment approach, based on the relative performance of the Funds as compared to their benchmarks over the period from launch to 31 December 2025 and 31 December 2024, assuming that relative performance remained unchanged and with all other variables remaining constant, the impact of a 10% increase in market prices deemed reasonable by management at the year end on the Net Asset Values of the Funds would have been as follows:

11. Financial Instruments and Associated Risks cont/d

A 10% decrease in market prices would have had a similar but opposite effect. 10% impact is deemed reasonable by management. The estimated sensitivities above are for illustrative purposes only and are not intended to be predictive. Actual fluctuations in response to market price changes may differ substantially from the above.

(i) Currency Risk

Currency risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates. The Fund may invest in financial instruments and enter into transactions in currencies other than its functional currency. Consequently, the Fund is exposed to risks that the exchange rate of its currency relative to other foreign currencies may change in a manner that has an adverse effect on the value of that portion of the Fund's assets or liabilities denominated in currencies other than the functional currency.

The currency risk information for the Company for the financial years ended 31 December 2025 and 31 December 2024 is given on a disaggregated sub-fund basis on pages 1297 to 1362.

For a Currency Hedged Share Class, the Sub-Portfolio Manager will seek to hedge the currency of the Currency Hedged Share Class against the currency exposures of the underlying securities in the portfolio which differ to the currency of that Currency Hedged Share Class. The Sub-Portfolio Manager will generally hedge these currency exposures at Share Class level by entering into currency forward exchange contracts.

The Funds may enter into foreign exchange hedging transactions, the aim of which is to protect against adverse currency fluctuations. Such hedging transactions may consist of foreign exchange forward contracts or other types of derivative, as disclosed in the Supplement for the relevant Fund, which reflect a foreign exchange hedging exposure that is regularly adjusted in line with the Regulations. Investors should note that there may be costs associated with the use of foreign exchange hedging transactions which may be borne by the Fund.

The Fund classifies its investments in debt instruments, equity instruments and derivatives as financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss. All the derivatives investments are held for trading purposes. All other financial assets and financial liabilities including cash and cash equivalents, receivables and payables are classified at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

The details of the open forward foreign currency contracts in place to hedge foreign currency risk at the financial year end date are disclosed in the Portfolio of Investments on pages 176 to 1238.

The Funds disclosed in the following tables had exposure to currencies other than their functional currency as at 31 December 2025 and 31 December 2024. None of the other Funds had exposure to currencies other than their functional currency as at 31 December 2025 and 31 December 2024. The Financial assets and liabilities disclosed include debt instruments, futures contracts, forward foreign exchange contracts, swap contracts, cash and cash equivalents, cash with and due to broker, payables and receivables.

Interest rate risk arises from the effects of fluctuations in the prevailing levels of market interest rates on the fair value of financial assets and liabilities and future cash flows. As such, any movement on interest rates of the Fund that holds interest-bearing securities would have an impact on its related NAV. All other instruments which are non-interest bearing will have an immaterial impact on any fluctuations in interest rates. The Company deemed it reasonable to use 2% sensitivity analysis on how much the NAV impact would be, with all other variables held constant.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that an entity will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities. Liquidity risks arise when a particular security is difficult to dispose of. In principle, acquisitions for the Fund must only consist of securities that can be sold again at any time.

The liquidity risk information for the Company for the financial years ended 31 December 2025 and 31 December 2024 is given on a disaggregated sub-fund basis on pages 1365 to 1374.

Nevertheless, it may be difficult to sell particular securities at the required time during certain phases or in particular exchange segments. There is also the risk that securities traded in a rather tight market segment may be subject to significant price volatility. Xtrackers MSCI GCC Select Swap UCITS ETF holds a total return swap position with HSBC Bank PLC. Xtrackers NASDAQ 100 Swap UCITS ETF and Xtrackers S&P 500 Equal Weight Swap UCITS ETF hold a total return swap position with Goldman Sachs Bank Europe SE. Xtrackers S&P 500 Swap II UCITS ETF holds a total return swap position with Goldman Sachs Bank Europe SE, HSBC Bank PLC and Morgan Stanley Capital Services LLC. Goldman Sachs Bank Europe SE, HSBC Bank PLC and Morgan Stanley Capital Services LLC role as the counterparties keep the Fund liquid by facilitating the swap's cash flows without requiring the Fund to manage physical asset transactions.

Furthermore per the Prospectus, the Directors are entitled to limit the number of Shares in a Fund repurchased on any Transaction Day to Shares representing 10% of the total Net Asset Value of that Fund on that Transaction Day. In this event, the limitation will apply pro rata so that all Shareholders wishing to have Shares of that Fund repurchased on that Transaction Day realise the same proportion of such Shares. Shares not repurchased, but which would otherwise have been repurchased, will be carried forward for repurchase on the next Transaction Day. If requests for repurchase are so carried forward, the Administrator will inform the Shareholders affected.

As at 31 December 2025, all liabilities of the Funds of the Company as per the Statement of Financial Position are payable within one month except for the following Funds below which have liabilities ranging from within one month to 1 year or greater.

Certain Funds of the Company (as defined in the articles of association of the Company) participate in an annually renewable EUR 17,000,000 (31 December 2024: EUR 12,000,000) committed revolving credit facility. Each participating Fund is individually liable for its borrowings under the credit facility.

Borrowings may be utilised for short term liquidity requirements and are subject to the participating Fund's regulatory and contractual borrowing restrictions. Participating Funds are allocated pro rata an annual commitment fee of 0.25% of the undrawn, uncancelled facility amount as well as an upfront fee of 0.05% of the facility amount. Interest costs associated with each draw on the credit facility are charged only to the Fund that made that draw and not to any other Fund.

The interest rate charged for borrowings under the credit facility is linked to the currency borrowed and the type of loan. The rate is the percentage rate per annum equal to the aggregate of the applicable margin and interest rate.

The majority of the investments are held by the Depositary at the financial years ended 31 December 2025 and 31 December 2024. Investments are segregated from the assets of the Depositary, with ownership rights remaining with the Funds. The Depositary is responsible for the proper monitoring of the cash flows of the UCITS, and, in particular, for ensuring that investor money and cash belonging to the UCITS is booked correctly on account. Bankruptcy or insolvency of the Depositary may cause the Funds' rights with respect to its investments and cash held by the Depositary to be delayed or limited. Securities are ring-fenced in an insolvency of the custodian. The maximum exposure to this risk is the amount of long investments (excluding derivatives) disclosed on the individual Portfolio of Investments of the relevant Funds.

The exposure in derivatives is disclosed separately in the Portfolio of Investments.

financial derivative exposures and cover within given portfolios and portfolio analysts checking designated accounts to ensure that derivative prices, data sets, interest rates and foreign exchange rates feed into the approved derivative exposure and measurement and assessment models are accurate.

OTC derivatives such as swap contracts and forward foreign currency exchange contracts are governed by internationally recognised master agreements, such as the International Swaps and Derivatives Association ("ISDA") Master Agreement. Swap confirmations are tracked and checked to confirm the terms of the trades are fully and correctly documented. The Management Company or Investment Managers use attorneys who have significant expertise in derivatives use and documentation.

Swap Contracts
Some of the Funds aim to achieve their investment objectives by gaining exposure to the relevant Underlying Assets through the use of swaps. The return of the Fund (after fees and expenses) will reflect the performance of the derivative contracts. A swap involves the exchange by the Fund with another party of their respective commitments to pay or receive cash flows, e.g. an exchange of coupon payments for the return on a particular index or basket of indices.

Swap contracts held at financial year end are presented in relevant Fund's Portfolio of Investments. Investments held at financial year end are representative of the type of investments held during the financial year.

The following Funds have invested in swap contracts: Xtrackers MSCI GCC Select Swap UCITS ETF, Xtrackers NASDAQ 100 Swap UCITS ETF, Xtrackers S&P 500 Equal Weight Swap UCITS ETF and Xtrackers S&P 500 Swap II UCITS ETF.

Fair Valuation Hierarchy
FRS 102 Section 11.43 requires disclosure relating to the fair value hierarchy in which fair value measurements are categorised for assets and liabilities. The disclosures are based on a three-level fair value hierarchy for the inputs used in valuation techniques to measure fair value.

The Company classifies fair value measurements using a fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of the inputs used in making the measurements, using a quantitative and qualitative analysis of those instruments recognised at fair value based on a three-level measurement hierarchy.

The fair value hierarchy has the following levels as defined under FRS 102 Section 34.22:

Level 1: The unadjusted quoted price in an active market for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date.
Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable (i.e. developed using market data) for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.
Level 3: Inputs are unobservable (i.e. for which market data is unavailable) for the asset or liability.

The level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement was categorised in its entirety was determined on the basis of the lowest level input that was significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety. For this purpose, the significance of an input was assessed against the fair value measurement in its entirety. If a fair value measurement used observable inputs that required significant adjustment based on unobservable inputs, that measurement was a Level 3 measurement. Assessing the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement in its entirety required judgement, considering factors specific to the asset or liability. The determination of what constituted "observable" required significant judgement by the Management Company.

The Management Company considered observable data to be that market data that was readily available, regularly distributed or updated, reliable and verifiable, not proprietary, and provided by independent sources that are actively involved in the relevant market.

$$\text{TER \%} = \frac{\text{Total operating expenses in CU*}}{\text{Average net assets in CU*}} \times 100$$
