The following information is derived from and should be read in conjunction with the full text and definitions section of the prospectus of Xtrackers (IE) plc, as amended and supplemented from time to time (the "Prospectus"). Capitalised terms used herein shall have the same meaning as capitalised terms used in the Prospectus unless otherwise defined herein.

Xtrackers (IE) plc (the "Company") is an investment company with variable capital incorporated on 17 November 2004, authorised and regulated by the Central Bank of Ireland (the "Central Bank") under the European Communities (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2011, as amended, and under the Central Bank (Supervision and Enforcement) Act 2013 (Section 48(1) (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2019 (together the "UCITS Regulations").

The Company is structured as an open-ended umbrella fund with segregated liability between the Funds. Shares representing interests in different Funds may be issued from time to time by the Directors without prior consent by the Central Bank. Shares of more than one Class may be issued in relation to a Fund. All Shares of each Class will rank pari passu save as provided for in each relevant Supplement to the Prospectus.

At the end of the financial year, the Company comprised 122 active Funds (31 December 2024: 106 active Funds).

Net Asset Value

The Net Asset Value ("NAV") of a Fund of the Company shall be presented in the currency in which the Shares are designated or in such other currency as the Directors may determine either generally or in relation to a particular Class or in a specific case, and shall be calculated by ascertaining the value of the assets of the Fund and deducting from such value the liabilities of the Fund (excluding shareholders equity) as at the NAV Date.

The NAV of the Company shall be presented in the currency in which the Shares are designated or in such other currency as the Directors may determine and shall be calculated by ascertaining the value of the assets of the Funds and deducting from such value the liabilities of the Funds (excluding shareholders equity) along with any cross investments between Funds in the Company as at the NAV Date.

The NAV per Share of a Fund will be calculated by dividing the NAV of the Fund by the number of Shares in the Fund then in issue or deemed to be in issue as at the NAV Date and rounding the result mathematically to four decimal places or such other number of decimal places as may be determined by the Directors from time to time.

In the event the Shares of any Fund are further divided into more than one Class, the NAV per Class shall be determined by notionally allocating the NAV of the Fund amongst the Classes making such adjustments for subscriptions, repurchases, fees, dividends accumulation or distribution of income and the expenses, liabilities or assets attributable to each such Class (including the gains/losses on and costs of financial instruments employed for currency hedging between the currencies in which the assets of the Fund are designated and the designated currency of the Class, which gains/losses and costs shall accrue solely to that Class) and any other factor differentiating the Classes as appropriate. The NAV of the Fund, as allocated between each Class, shall be divided by the number of Shares of the relevant Class which are in issue or deemed to be in issue and rounding the result mathematically to four decimal places as determined by the Directors or such other number of decimal places as may be determined by the Directors from time to time.

Tracking Error and Tracking Difference

Funds which track an index are subject to tracking error risks which may result in the value and performance of the Shares not tracking exactly the value and performance of the corresponding Index. The tracking error is defined as the volatility (as measured by the standard deviation) of the difference between the return of the Fund and the return of its Index, on an annual basis (the "Tracking Error"). It should be differentiated from the tracking difference, which is simply the difference between the return of the Fund and the return of its Index, on an annual basis or another given period of time (the "Tracking Difference"). The Tracking Difference indicates the extent to which a Fund has outperformed or underperformed its Index on an annual basis or another given period of time. In contrast, the Tracking Error measures how consistently the Fund return matches its Index on an annual basis. The anticipated level of Tracking Error, in normal market conditions, is disclosed for each Fund in the Supplements (please see the "Description of the Shares" section of the relevant Supplement). For Funds with Currency Hedged Share Classes, the anticipated tracking error disclosed represents the tracking error of the unhedged Share Classes against the relevant Fund's Reference Index (which is also unhedged), where applicable. Tracking Error may also be impacted by the Investment Manager seeking to ensure compliance with the CCW Policy and any other ESG commitments as described under the heading "Sustainability-Related Disclosures under SFDR and EU Taxonomy Regulation" section. Investors' attention is drawn to the fact that these figures are only estimates of the Tracking Error level in normal market conditions and should not be understood as strict limits. Tracking Error and Tracking Difference for the financial period to date is outlined in the Fund Performance Supplemental Data on pages 1600 to 1604 for the relevant Funds where they apply.

Targets for the gender quota
For the supervisory board of a listed, co-determined company, a minimum quota of 30 percent women has already been applied since the amendment of Section 96 German Stock Corporation Act by Article 3 of the Management Position Act (Führungspositionen-Gesetz) of 2015. Pursuant to statutory requirements, five out of twelve or 41.7% of Supervisory Board members were women at year-end 2025, consistent with 2024.

According to the Management Position Act II (Führungspositionen-Gesetz II), listed companies which have more than 2,000 employees, must fill one position with a woman and one with a man on their executive and administrative boards with more than three members. This requirement does not apply to the DWS Executive Board due to the KGaA structure and smaller company size.

In 2025, the Executive Board agreed to meet the target of 30% women in the two management levels below the Executive Board. By comparison, the targets set for 2024 were 32% for the first and 33% for the second management level below the Executive Board. No other stakeholders besides the Executive Board were involved in the target-setting process. Progress toward these targets is monitored and reviewed on a monthly basis. As of 31 December 2025, we achieved a female representation of 32.9% (in total 23) at the first level (34.6% as of 31 December 2024) and 31.3% (in total 142) at the second level below the Executive Board (33.8% as of 31 December 2024). The overall progression of our female population has generally had a positive trend over the past five years in the two management levels below the Executive Board. But we did see an impact from recent organisational changes and shifting management layers since the 2024 year end.

Dealings with shareholders
The convening and conduct of shareholders' meetings are governed by the Articles of Association of the Company and the Irish Companies Act. Although the Board may convene an extraordinary general meeting of the Company at any time, the Board was required to convene the first annual general meeting of the Company within eighteen months of incorporation and subsequent annual general meetings within fifteen months of the date of the previous annual general meeting thereafter, provided that an annual general meeting is held once in each financial year within six months of the end of each accounting period of the Company.

At least twenty-one clear days' notice of every annual general meeting and any general meeting convened for the passing of a special resolution must be given to shareholders and fourteen days' notice must be given in the case of any other general meeting unless the auditors of the Company and all the shareholders of the Company entitled to attend and vote agree to shorter notice. Two shareholders present either in person or by proxy constitutes a quorum at a general meeting. The share capital of the Company is divided into different Classes of Shares and the Irish Companies Act and the Articles of Association provide that the quorum for a general meeting convened to consider any alteration to the rights attached to any Class of Shares, is two or more shareholders present in person or by proxy, holding or representing by proxy at least one third of the issued Shares of the relevant Class.

Every holder of participating shares or subscriber shares present, in person or by proxy who votes on a show of hands is entitled to one vote. On a poll, every holder of participating shares present, in person or by proxy, is entitled to one vote in respect of each Share held by him, and every holder of subscriber shares is entitled to one vote in respect of all subscriber shares held by him. At any general meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting is decided on a show of hands unless, before or upon the declaration of the result of the show of hands, a poll is demanded by the chairman of the general meeting, or by at least two members or shareholders present, in person or by proxy, having the right to vote at such meeting, or any holder or holders of participating shares present, in person or by proxy, representing at least one tenth of the Shares in issue having the right to vote at such meeting.

Shareholders may resolve to sanction an ordinary resolution or special resolution at a shareholders' meeting. Alternatively, a resolution in writing signed by all of the shareholders and holders of non-participating shares for the time being entitled to attend and vote on such resolution at a general meeting of the Company, will be valid and effective for all purposes as if the resolution had been passed at a general meeting of the Company duly convened and held. An ordinary resolution of the Company (or of the shareholders of a particular fund or Class of Shares) requires a simple majority of the votes cast by the shareholders voting, in person or by proxy, at the meeting at which the resolution is proposed. A special resolution of the Company (or of the shareholders of a particular fund or Class of Shares) requires a majority of not less than 75% of shareholders present, in person or by proxy, and voting in general meeting in order to pass a special resolution including a resolution to amend the Articles of Association.

Board composition and activities
In accordance with the Irish Companies Act and the Articles of Association, unless otherwise determined by an ordinary resolution of the Company in general meeting, the number of Directors may not be less than two. Details of the current Directors are set out on page 1, under the heading "Directors".

The business of the Company is managed by the Board, who exercise all such powers of the Company as are not by the Irish Companies Act or by the Articles of Association of the Company required to be exercised by the Company in general meeting. The Board is responsible for the Company's overall direction and strategy and to this end it reserves the decision making power on issues such as the determination of medium and long term goals, review of managerial performance, organisational structure and capital needs and commitments to achieve the Company's strategic goals. To achieve these responsibilities, the Board meets on a quarterly basis to review the operations of the Company, address matters of strategic importance and to receive reports from the Management Company, Administrator, Depositary and the Investment Manager.

Independent Auditor's Report to the Members of Xtrackers (IE) Public Limited Company

Report on the audit of the financial statements

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Xtrackers (IE) Public Limited Company ('the Company') for the year ended 31 December 2025 set out on pages 35 to 1451, which comprise the Statement of Financial Position, the Statement of Comprehensive Income, the Statement of Changes in Net Assets Attributable to Holders of Redeemable Participating Shares, the Portfolio of Investments and related notes, including the material accounting policies set out in note 3.

The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is Irish Law and FRS 102 The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland issued in the United Kingdom by the Financial Reporting Council.

In our opinion:

- the financial statements give a true and fair view of the assets, liabilities and financial position of the Company as at 31 December 2025 and of its increase in net assets attributable to holders of redeemable participating shares for the year then ended;
- the financial statements have been properly prepared in accordance with FRS 102 The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland; and
- the financial statements have been properly prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2014, the European Communities (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities Regulations) 2011 and the Central Bank (Supervision and Enforcement) Act 2013 (Section 48(1)) (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2019.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (Ireland) (ISAs (Ireland)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities section of our report. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is a sufficient and appropriate basis for our opinion. Our audit opinion is consistent with our report to the audit committee.

We were appointed as auditor by the Directors on 17 June 2024. The period of total uninterrupted engagement is the two years ended 31 December 2025. We have fulfilled our ethical responsibilities under, and we remained independent of the Company in accordance with, ethical requirements applicable in Ireland, including the Ethical Standard issued by the Irish Auditing and Accounting Supervisory Authority (IAASA) as applied to listed public interest entities. No non-audit services prohibited by that standard were provided.

Conclusions relating to going concern

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the director's use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate. Our evaluation of the director's assessment of the entity's ability to continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting included using our knowledge of the Company to identify inherent risks to the Company's business model and analysis of how those risks might affect the Company's financial resources or ability to continue operations as a going concern over the twelve months from the date of when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

KPMG, an Irish partnership and a member firm of the KPMG global organisation of independent member firms affiliated with KPMG International Limited, a private English company limited by guarantee

Conclusions relating to going concern

The risks we considered most likely to adversely affect the Company's available financial resources over this period was the availability of capital to meet operating costs and other financial commitments (liquidity risk) and the valuation of investments at fair value as a result of market performance (price risk). In the Directors' assessment it was noted that the Company held, and continues to hold, a large number of shares through different sub-funds, and the composition of the sub-funds' portfolios reduces the going concern risk resulting from market performance of the investments. The Director's assessment is consistent with our understanding of the Company.

Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from the date when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the directors with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.

Detecting irregularities including fraud

We identified the areas of laws and regulations that could reasonably be expected to have a material effect on the financial statements and risks of material misstatement due to fraud, using our understanding of the entity's industry, regulatory environment and other external factors and inquiry with the directors. In addition, our risk assessment procedures included:

- Inquiring with the directors or other management as to the Company's policies and procedures regarding compliance with laws and regulations, identifying, evaluating and accounting for litigation and claims, as well as whether they have knowledge of non-compliance or instances of litigation or claims.
- Inquiring of directors as to the Company's high-level policies and procedures to prevent and detect fraud, as well as whether they have knowledge of any actual, suspected or alleged fraud.
- Inquiring of directors regarding their assessment of the risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated due to irregularities, including fraud.
- Inspecting the Company's regulatory and legal correspondence.
- Reading Board and audit committee minutes.
- Performing planning analytical procedures to identify any unusual or unexpected relationships.

We discussed identified laws and regulations, fraud risk factors and the need to remain alert among the audit team.

Firstly, the Company is subject to laws and regulations that directly affect the financial statements including companies and financial reporting legislation. We assessed the extent of compliance with these laws and regulations as part of our procedures on the related financial statement items, including assessing the financial statement disclosures and agreeing them to supporting documentation when necessary.

Secondly, the Company is subject to many other laws and regulations where the consequences of non-compliance could have a material effect on amounts or disclosures in the financial statements, for instance through the imposition of fines or litigation. We identified the following areas as those most likely to have such an effect: certain aspects of company legislation recognising the financial and regulated nature of the Company's activities and its legal form.

Auditing standards limit the required audit procedures to identify non-compliance with these non-direct laws and regulations to inquiry of the directors and other management and inspection of regulatory and legal correspondence, if any. These limited procedures did not identify actual or suspected non-compliance.

We assessed events or conditions that could indicate an incentive or pressure to commit fraud or provide an opportunity to commit fraud. As required by auditing standards, we performed procedures to address the risk of management override of controls. On this audit we do not believe there is a fraud risk related to revenue recognition.

In response to the fraud risk, we also performed procedures including:

- Identifying journal entries during the year and post-closing adjustments to test based on risk criteria and comparing the identified entries to supporting documentation.
- Assessing significant accounting estimates for bias.
- Assessing the disclosures in the financial statements.

As the Company is regulated, our assessment of risks involved obtaining an understanding of the legal and regulatory framework that the Company operates and gaining an understanding of the control environment including the entity's procedures for complying with regulatory requirements.

Owing to the inherent limitations of an audit, there is an unavoidable risk that we may not have detected some material misstatements in the financial statements, even though we have properly planned and performed our audit in accordance with auditing standards. For example, the further removed non-compliance with laws and regulations (irregularities) is from the events and transactions reflected in the financial statements, the less likely the inherently limited procedures required by auditing standards would identify it.

In addition, as with any audit, there remains a higher risk of non-detection of irregularities, as these may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal controls. We are not responsible for preventing non-compliance and cannot be expected to detect non-compliance with all laws and regulations.

Key audit matters: our assessment of risks of material misstatement

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements and include the most significant assessed risks of material misstatement (whether or not due to fraud) identified by us, including those which had the greatest effect on: the overall audit strategy; the allocation of resources in the audit; and directing the efforts of the engagement team. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

In arriving at our audit opinion above, the key audit matters were as follows (unchanged from 2024):

Accuracy and valuation of financial assets - €131.399bn (2024: €116.354bn) and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss ('FVTPL') - €22.493m (2024: €93.703m), as per the Company's Statement of Financial Position:

Refer to Note 3(a)(i),(ii),(iii),(iv),(vii) and (viii) (accounting policy)

The key audit matter	How the matter was addressed in our audit
The financial assets and financial liabilities at FVTPL included in the Statement of Financial Position of the Company at 31 December 2025 are measured at fair value through profit or loss in line with FRS 102. While the nature of the Company's financial assets and financial liabilities at FVTPL do not require significant levels of judgement, they are identified as a significant area of audit focus as they represent substantially all of the net assets attributable to holders of redeemable participating shares of the Company. For the reasons outlined above the engagement team determine this matter to be a key audit matter.	We tested the accuracy and valuation of the financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss included in the Statement of Financial Position of the Company at 31 December 2025 by obtaining pricing downloads from external reputable sources, and compared these valuations to the Company's prices. Based on evidence obtained, we found no material misstatements as a result of the procedures performed.

Existence and ownership of financial assets - €131.399bn (2024: €116.354bn) and financial liabilities at FVTPL - €22.493m (2024: €93.703m), as per the Company's Statement of Financial Position:

Refer to Note 3(a)(i),(ii),(iii),(iv),(vii), and (viii) (accounting policy)

The key audit matter	How the matter was addressed in our audit
The financial assets and financial liabilities at FVTPL included in the Statement of Financial Position of the Company are held in the Company's sub-funds' name at 31 December 2025. While the nature of the Company's financial assets and financial liabilities at FVTPL do not require significant levels of judgement, they are identified as a significant area of audit focus as they represent substantially all of the net assets attributable to holders of redeemable participating shares of the Company. For the reason outlined above the engagement team determine this matter to be a key audit matter.	To test the existence and ownership of financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss as at 31 December 2025, we obtained independent confirmations from the Depositary and derivative counterparties. We reconciled these confirmed financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss to the Company's accounting records, performing alternative audit procedures where necessary. Based on evidence obtained, we found no material misstatements as a result of the procedures performed.

Our application of materiality and an overview of the scope of our audit

Materiality for the financial statements as a whole was set at €1.32bn (2024: €1.16bn), determined with reference to a benchmark of the Company's Net Asset Value (of which it represents 1% as at 31 December 2025 (2024: 1%)).

In applying our judgement in determining the most appropriate benchmark, the factors, which had the most significant impact were:

-the elements of the financial statements (for example, total assets, net asset value, total investment income and increase in net assets attributable to holders of redeemable participating shares);

-the items on which attention of the users of the Company's financial statements tends to be focused;

- the nature of the Company, where the Company is in its life cycle, and the industry and economic environment in which the Company operates; and

-the Company's ownership structure and the way it is financed.

In applying our judgement in determining the percentage to be applied to the benchmark, the following qualitative factors, which had the most significant impact, increasing our assessment of materiality were:

-the Company's ownership structure and the way in which the entity is financed;

-the limited amount of external debt on the Company's balance sheet; and

-the stability of the business environment in which it operates.

INVESTMENT MANAGER'S REPORT (UNAUDITED)

Market Commentary

Global equity markets ended 2025 on stronger ground, with the MSCI All Country World Index advancing +22.9% (gross total return, USD) for the year, marking a third straight year of double-digit gains. During the fourth quarter of 2025 (Q4), equities delivered steady to robust returns across most major developed and emerging regions, while fixed income markets worked through shifting expectations for policy rates. The period was not without challenges, geopolitical tensions and the U.S. government shutdown weighed on sentiment early in Q4, but improving earnings outlooks and constructive developments on trade helped re-anchor risk appetite as Q4 progressed.

EQUITY

United States (U.S.):
U.S. equities moved higher over Q4 as inflation continued to ease and interest-rate expectations settled heading into 2025 year-end. The S&P 500 gained +2.7% in Q4 and +17.9% for the full year, supported by a broadening of market leadership beyond the narrow group that dominated earlier in 2025. Sector performance was mixed: Health Care (+11.7%) and Communication Services (+7.3%) delivered the strongest gains. The Health Care sector benefited from the resolution of significant policy uncertainty surrounding drug-pricing regulation. In contrast, Real Estate (–2.9%) and Utilities (–1.4%) underperformed. Corporate results were generally constructive, with most S&P 500 companies reporting earnings ahead of expectations, although Consumer Staples recorded the highest share of negative surprises due to persistent margin pressures.

Eurozone:
Eurozone equities advanced over Q4, supported by resilient services activity and a modest improvement in the political backdrop. The EURO STOXX Index rose +5.3% in Q4 and +25.2% for 2025, while the STOXX Europe 600 gained +6.5% for Q4 and +20.7% for 2025. At a country level, Spain's IBEX 35 (+55.3%) and Italy's FTSE MIB (+38.1%) significantly outperformed the broader region on a full-year basis, reflecting stronger domestic demand and supportive financial conditions. Sector performance within the STOXX Europe 600 showed pronounced dispersion: Basic Resources (+19.7%), Banks (+14.9%), and Utilities (+11.0%) led Q4´s gains. By contrast, Chemicals (–2.7%) and Media (–2.6%) underperformed the market. For the full year of 2025, STOXX Europe 600 Banks Index delivered an exceptional (+76.7%) return, underpinned by stronger profitability and higher capital distributions to shareholders.

United Kingdom (U.K.):
UK equities delivered solid gains over Q4, supported by easing inflation, firmer new-orders data, and expectations of additional monetary easing from the Bank of England. The FTSE 100 rose +6.9% in Q4, marking its fourth consecutive quarterly advance. For the full year of 2025, the index returned +25.7%, its strongest annual performance since the post-financial-crisis rebound in 2009.

Japan:
Japanese equities extended their strong annual performance, supported by resilient domestic conditions, improved political stability, and the announcement during Q4 of the largest fiscal stimulus package since the pandemic. The TOPIX 100 Total Return Index gained +9.4% in Q4 and +23.7% for 2025, marking the third consecutive year of annual returns above 20%. Sector leadership for Q4 was driven by Non-ferrous Metals (+28.5%), Construction (+19.0%), and Mining (+18.7%), which benefited from favourable export demand and supportive fiscal measures. In contrast, Air Transport (+1.0%), Land Transportation (+1.5%), and Chemicals (+2.6%) lagged as margin pressures persisted.

Emerging Markets (EM):
Emerging market equities delivered mixed but overall positive quarterly performance. The MSCI Emerging Markets Index rose +4.8% in Q4 and +34.3% for 2025 (in USD). Performance dispersion remained elevated during Q4: Korea's KOSPI Index (+23.4%) and MSCI Taiwan (+13.9%) benefited from strong semiconductor momentum; China (–7.3%) lagged, breaking a three-quarter streak of positive returns.

FIXED INCOME

United States (U.S.):
A prolonged federal shutdown complicated data interpretation early in Q4, but subsequent releases reaffirmed the ongoing moderation in inflation and a softer labour backdrop. At its December 2025 meeting, the Federal Open Market Committee cut the federal funds rate by 25 basis points (bps), bringing the target range to 3.5%–3.75%, marking the third reduction of 2025 and broadly in line with market expectations. U.S. yields bear-steepened into year-end, with the 10-year Treasury closing at 4.17% (vs. 4.15% at the end of the third quarter of 2025 (Q3)) and the 2-year finishing at 3.48% (from 3.61%). Investment-grade credit remained resilient, with spreads ending Q4 at 77 bps, slightly wider than the 73 bps level at the start of Q4. High-yield markets improved toward the end of Q4 where spreads narrowed by 4 bps to 163 bps, reflecting firmer risk sentiment despite mixed macro signals.

Eurozone:
Bund yields moved higher into December 2025 as the European Central Bank (ECB) maintained its data-dependent stance and signalled that the threshold for rate cuts remained high, reinforced by Governing Council communication and updated projections. The 10-year German Bund yield ended 2025 at 2.85% (vs. 2.71% at the end of Q3), while the 2-year yield rose to 2.12%, up 10 bps over Q4. Spreads for France and Italy tightened modestly toward year-end, supported by stabilising political developments and constructive rating dynamics. The EUR investment-grade market remained well supported, with full-year supply reaching over €400 bn (+14% y/y). Credit spreads were steady, with Euro investment grade bonds ending Q4 at 78 bps, unchanged from the start of Q4, while Euro high-yield spreads narrowed slightly to 264 bps.

United Kingdom (U.K.):
The Bank of England cut rates by 25 bps in December 2025, bringing Bank Rate to 3.75%, citing further progress on inflation and continued softness in economic activity. Gilt yields moved lower at the front end, with the 2-year yield declining from 3.98% to 3.71% by Q4 end, while longer maturities—the 10-year yield ended 2025 at 4.48%, remaining notably higher than those of other major European sovereigns. Incoming data confirmed a sluggish backdrop: monthly gross domestic product fell –0.1% month over month in October 2025, pulling the three-month growth rate down to –0.1%, the weakest pace since late 2023. Inflation continued to moderate, with headline consumer price index (CPI) easing to 3.2% in November and core CPI also declining to 3.2%, reinforcing expectations of a gradual but extended easing cycle in 2026.

Japan:
The Bank of Japan (BoJ) raised the policy rate to 0.75%, the highest level in over three decades, underscoring gradual normalisation as inflation stayed above target and wage prospects improved. Supply-demand concerns at the super-long end persisted given fiscal programmes and changing insurer demand, pushing long-end yields to multi-decade highs. For the full year of 2025, 10-year government bond yields rose sharply, ending at 2.06%. Markets digested the move without disorderly conditions, with the curve steepening and near-term guidance remaining cautious.

Emerging Markets:
Emerging market sovereign debt delivered positive performance during Q4. The Bloomberg EM USD Sovereign Bond Index benefited from a decline in its yield-to-maturity, which fell from 6.36% to 5.88%, driven largely by a significant repricing of Argentine bonds following favourable election outcomes. Local-currency sovereign markets were comparatively stable, with 10-year yields in China (1.84% vs. 1.86%), Brazil (13.73% vs. 13.72%), and India (6.59% vs. 6.57%) were essentially unchanged over Q4, reflecting a broadly steady macro backdrop across the major EM rate markets.

The performance figures in the Investment Manager's report are calculated based on the last official NAV of the year, which in some cases is different than the NAV used for the purpose of the Annual Report. NAVs used for the Annual Report are all dated 31 December 2025 (except for liquidated Funds or Share Classes) and have been specially calculated for the purpose of the Annual Report; for the avoidance of doubt, the NAVs as published in the Annual Report are not NAVs on which any Shareholder could have traded. Computing performance figures with the NAV included in the Annual Report will lead to different results than the below table. Details of the Tracking Error and Tracking Difference are explained on page 5 and further expanded on in the Prospectus and relevant Supplements.
