The Company is structured as an open-ended umbrella fund with segregated liability between the Funds. Shares representing interests in different Funds may be issued from time to time by the Directors without prior consent by the Central Bank. ### Net Asset Value

The Net Asset Value ("NAV") of a Fund shall be presented in the currency in which the Shares are designated or in such other currency as the Directors may determine either generally or in relation to a particular Class or in a specific case, and shall be calculated by ascertaining the value of the assets of the Fund and deducting from such value the liabilities of the Fund (excluding shareholders equity) as at the NAV Date.

The NAV of the Company shall be presented in the currency in which the Shares are designated or in such other currency as the Directors may determine and shall be calculated by ascertaining the value of the assets of the Funds and deducting from such value the liabilities of the Funds (excluding shareholders equity) along with any cross investments between Funds in the Company as at the NAV Date.

The NAV per Share of a Fund will be calculated by dividing the NAV of the Fund by the number of Shares in the Fund then in issue or deemed to be in issue as at the NAV Date and rounding the result mathematically to four decimal places or such other number of decimal places as may be determined by the Directors from time to time.

In the event the Shares of any Fund are further divided into Classes, the NAV per Class shall be determined by notionally allocating the NAV of the Fund amongst the Classes making such adjustments for subscriptions, repurchases, fees, dividends accumulation or distribution of income and the expenses, liabilities or assets attributable to each such Class (including the gains/losses on and costs of financial instruments employed for currency hedging between the currencies in which the assets of the Fund are designated and the designated currency of the Class, which gains/losses and costs shall accrue solely to that Class) and any other factor differentiating the Classes as appropriate. The NAV of the Fund, as allocated between each Class, shall be divided by the number of Shares of the relevant Class which are in issue or deemed to be in issue and rounding the result mathematically to four decimal places as determined by the Directors or such other number of decimal places as may be determined by the Directors from time to time.

Tracking Error and Tracking Difference

Funds which track an index are subject to tracking error risks which may result in the value and performance of the Shares not tracking exactly the value and performance of the corresponding Index. The tracking error is defined as the volatility (as measured by the standard deviation) of the difference between the return of the Fund and the return of its Index, on an annual basis (the "Tracking Error"). It should be differentiated from the tracking difference, which is simply the difference between the return of the Fund and the return of its Index, on an annual basis or another given period of time (the "Tracking Difference"). The Tracking Difference indicates the extent to which a Fund has outperformed or underperformed its Index on an annual basis or another given period of time. In contrast, the Tracking Error measures how consistently the Fund return matches its Index on an annual basis. The anticipated level of Tracking Error, in normal market conditions, is disclosed for each Fund in the Supplements (please see the "Description of the Shares" section of the relevant Supplement). For Funds with Currency Hedged Share Classes, the anticipated tracking error disclosed represents the tracking error of the unhedged Share Classes against the relevant Fund's Reference Index (which is also unhedged), where applicable. Tracking Error may also be impacted by the Investment Manager seeking to ensure compliance with the CCW Policy and any other ESG commitments as described under the heading "Sustainability-Related Disclosures under SFDR and EU Taxonomy Regulation" section. Investors' attention is drawn to the fact that these figures are only estimates of the Tracking Error level in normal market conditions and should not be understood as strict limits. Tracking Error and Tracking Difference for the financial period to date is outlined in the Fund Performance Supplemental Data on pages 1370 to 1373 for the relevant Funds where they apply.

The employee resource groups (ERGs) play a central role in connecting people, helping to learn from other experiences, and identifying new solutions. ERGs are voluntary, cross-divisional, employee-led groups created to accelerate the advancement of employees from traditionally underrepresented groups, allies who support those groups, and people who share a common purpose, interest or background. Depending on location, ERGs have been created for the advancement of the following communities at Deutsche Bank: differently-abled, neurodiverse, families, generations, LGBTQI, multicultural/people of color, veterans, and women.

Diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI) are part of the foundations on which the firm's People Strategy is built. To better reflect the diversity of the societies in which it operates and the clients it serves, the firm has an ambition to increase the number of women and people of all ethnicities in senior, decision-making and client facing roles. The firm wants all its employees to feel a sense of belonging by creating an inclusive work environment where everyone feels welcomed, respected, listened to, treated fairly, and can contribute and grow. Equity recognises that not everyone has the same starting point and designs systems and processes to ensure access to opportunities. Equity requires different interventions for members of some groups due to systemic barriers that are replicated in the workplace.

Throughout 2024, the firm continued to embed diversity, equity and inclusion in its culture and employee practices by supporting the advancement of women and members of other under-represented groups. The firm takes a multi-dimensional approach including targeted outreach to attract and hire diverse talent, enhanced career planning, leadership development, exposure opportunities and senior leader sponsorship. The firm continues to equip its people with resources to practice inclusion and understand how to make equitable people-related decisions. The firm holds leaders accountable using a data driven approach with strong engagement with business line management. With this approach, the firm is making progress increasing representation from more diverse groups and driving behavioral change.

For almost two decades, the firm has affirmed that having a diverse, equitable and inclusive work environment is important to its overall success. During this time, it has forged strategic partnerships with organisations worldwide, such as Fondsfrauen, Level20, Human Rights Campaign Business Coalition, The Equity Collective, and Sponsors for Educational Opportunity. These partnerships help the firm advance its agenda both internally and externally. The firm is proud to have and support several voluntary, employee-led Employee Inclusion Networks. Increasing acceptance, awareness and support for under-represented groups and highlighting challenges, these networks host a variety of events, learning and development opportunities, discussions on relevant topics and community outreach. Depending on the location, the firm's Employee Inclusion Networks currently support a variety of communities such as women, LGBTQI+ employees, disabled employees, employees from multicultural backgrounds, parents, different generations, and veterans as well as addressing physical and mental wellbeing.

We continued to host our annual 'Day in the Life of an Asset Manager' event in the US geared toward students of diverse backgrounds across 12 universities to inform them more about the asset management profession and opportunities at our firm.

On 29 January 2019, the Supervisory Board set a target for the percentage of women on our Supervisory Board of at least 30% of the members by 29 January 2024. As of 31 December 2024, the percentage of women on our Supervisory Board is 41.7%. At the end of the financial year, our Executive Board includes one woman which exceeds the German Executives Positions Act II (Zweites Führungspositionengesetz) which was introduced in August 2021. In 2021, the Executive Board set further targets for the percentage of women for the first management level (32%) and the second management level (33%) beneath the Executive Board, to be reached by 31 December 2024. As of 31 December 2024, 34.6% of the executive positions at the first management level below the Executive Board were held by women (2023: 36.2%). At the second management level below the Executive Board, this percentage stood at 33.8% (2023: 36.3%).

Our aspiration is for greater female representation across DWS and we continue to monitor and report on our progress to the Executive Board. Individual goals and targets form part of Balanced Scorecards allocated to senior leaders across the firm – and these are aligned to performance evaluation and compensation. We are also committed to ensuring that:

- We increase diversity in decision making bodies which include voting committees, legal entity boards, and other bodies.
- We reflect gender diversity within our product range, e. g. DWS Invest ESG Women for Women.
- We participate in the Gender and Ethnicity Pay Gap Report of Deutsche Bank Group in the UK.

The cohorts for the program are run regionally in APAC, US, and Europe, where regional groups of new managers are formed on a quarterly basis after transitioning into a manager role for the first time. Work has begun to establish a similar program targeted to experienced managers.

Such systems are designed to manage rather than eliminate the risk of error or fraud in achieving the Company's financial reporting objectives and can only provide reasonable and not absolute assurance against material misstatement or loss.

The Board has procedures in place to ensure that all relevant books of account are properly maintained and are readily available, including production of annual and half yearly financial statements. The Management Company has appointed the Administrator to maintain the books and records of the Company. The Administrator is authorised and regulated by the Central Bank and must comply with the rules imposed by the Central Bank. From time to time, the Board, or the Management Company on its behalf, examines and evaluates the Administrator's financial accounting and reporting routines. The annual financial statements of the Company are produced by the Administrator and reviewed by the Management Company. They are required to be approved by the Board and the annual and half yearly financial statements of the Company are required to be filed with the Central Bank.

During the period of these financial statements, the Board was responsible for the review and approval of the unaudited half yearly financial statements as set out in the Statement of Directors' Responsibilities. The statutory financial statements are required to be audited by independent auditors who report annually to the Board on their findings. The Board monitors and evaluates the independent auditor's performance, qualifications and independence. As part of its review procedures, the Board receives presentations from relevant parties including consideration of Irish accounting standards and their impact on the annual financial statements, and presentations and reports on the audit process. The Board evaluates and discusses significant accounting and reporting issues as the need arises.

Independent Auditor's Report to the Members of Xtrackers (IE) plc

Report on the audit of the financial statements

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Xtrackers (IE) plc ('the Company') for the year ended 31 December 2024 set out on pages 36 to 1249, which comprise the Statement of Financial Position, the Statement of Comprehensive Income, the Statement of Changes in Net Assets Attributable to Holders of Redeemable Participating Shares, the Portfolio of Investments and related notes, including the material accounting policies set out in note 3.

The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is Irish Law and FRS 102 The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland issued in the United Kingdom by the Financial Reporting Council.

In our opinion:

- the financial statements give a true and fair view of the assets, liabilities and financial position of the Company as at 31 December 2024 and of its increase in net assets attributable to holders of redeemable participating shares for the year then ended;
- the financial statements have been properly prepared in accordance with FRS 102 The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland; and
- the financial statements have been properly prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2014, the European Communities (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities Regulations) 2011 and the Central Bank (Supervision and Enforcement) Act 2013 (Section 48(1)) (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2019.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (Ireland) (ISAs (Ireland)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities section of our report. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is a sufficient and appropriate basis for our opinion. Our audit opinion is consistent with our report to the audit committee.

We were appointed as auditor by the Directors on 17 June 2024. The period of total uninterrupted engagement is the one year ended 31 December 2024. We have fulfilled our ethical responsibilities under, and we remained independent of the Company in accordance with, ethical requirements applicable in Ireland, including the Ethical Standard issued by the Irish Auditing and Accounting Supervisory Authority (IAASA) as applied to listed public interest entities. No non-audit services prohibited by that standard were provided.

Conclusions relating to going concern

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the director's use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate. Our evaluation of the director's assessment of the entity's ability to continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting included using our knowledge of the Company to identify inherent risks to the Company's business model and analysis of how those risks might affect the Company's financial resources or ability to continue operations as a going concern over the twelve months from the date of when the financial statements are authorised for issue. The risks we considered most likely to adversely affect the Company's available financial resources over this period was the availability of capital to meet operating costs and other financial commitments (liquidity risk) and the valuation of investments at fair value as a result of market performance (price risk).

In the Directors' assessment it was noted that the Company held, and continues to hold, a large number of shares through different sub-funds, and the composition of the sub-funds' portfolios reduces the going concern risk resulting from market performance of the investments. The Director's assessment is consistent with our understanding of the Company.

Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from the date when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the directors with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.

Detecting irregularities including fraud

We identified the areas of laws and regulations that could reasonably be expected to have a material effect on the financial statements and risks of material misstatement due to fraud, using our understanding of the entity's industry, regulatory environment and other external factors and inquiry with the directors. In addition, our risk assessment procedures included:

- Inquiring with the directors and other management as to the Company's policies and procedures regarding compliance with laws and regulations, identifying, evaluating and accounting for litigation and claims, as well as whether they have knowledge of non-compliance or instances of litigation or claims.
- Inquiring of directors as to the Company's high-level policies and procedures to prevent and detect fraud, as well as whether they have knowledge of any actual, suspected or alleged fraud.
- Inquiring of directors regarding their assessment of the risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated due to irregularities, including fraud.
- Inspecting the Company's regulatory and legal correspondence.
- Reading Board and audit committee minutes.
- Performing planning analytical procedures to identify any usual or unexpected relationships.

We discussed identified laws and regulations, fraud risk factors and the need to remain alert among the audit team.

Firstly, the Company is subject to laws and regulations that directly affect the financial statements including companies and financial reporting legislation. We assessed the extent of compliance with these laws and regulations as part of our procedures on the related financial statement items, including assessing the financial statement disclosures and agreeing them to supporting documentation when necessary.

Secondly, the Company is subject to many other laws and regulations where the consequences of non-compliance could have a material effect on amounts or disclosures in the financial statements, for instance through the imposition of fines or litigation. We identified the following areas as those most likely to have such an effect: certain aspects of company legislation recognising the financial and regulated nature of the Company's activities and its legal form.

Auditing standards limit the required audit procedures to identify non-compliance with these non-direct laws and regulations to inquiry of the directors and other management and inspection of regulatory and legal correspondence, if any. These limited procedures did not identify actual or suspected non-compliance.

We assessed events or conditions that could indicate an incentive or pressure to commit fraud or provide an opportunity to commit fraud. As required by auditing standards, we performed procedures to address the risk of management override of controls. On this audit we do not believe there is a fraud risk related to revenue recognition.

In response to the fraud risks, we also performed procedures including:

- Identifying journal entries during the year and post-closing adjustments to test based on risk criteria and comparing the identified entries to supporting documentation.
- Assessing significant accounting estimates for bias.
- Assessing the disclosures in the financial statements.

As the Company is regulated, our assessment of risks involved obtaining an understanding of the legal and regulatory framework that the Company operates and gaining an understanding of the control environment including the entity's procedures for complying with regulatory requirements.

Owing to the inherent limitations of an audit, there is an unavoidable risk that we may not have detected some material misstatements in the financial statements, even though we have properly planned and performed our audit in accordance with auditing standards. For example, the further removed non-compliance with laws and regulations (irregularities) is from the events and transactions reflected in the financial statements, the less likely the inherently limited procedures required by auditing standards would identify it.

In addition, as with any audit, there remains a higher risk of non-detection of irregularities, as these may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal controls. We are not responsible for preventing non-compliance and cannot be expected to detect non-compliance with all laws and regulations.

Key audit matters: our assessment of risks of material misstatement

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements and include the most significant assessed risks of material misstatement (whether or not due to fraud) identified by us, including those which had the greatest effect on: the overall audit strategy; the allocation of resources in the audit; and directing the efforts of the engagement team. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

In arriving at our audit opinion above, the key audit matters, were as follows:

Existence and ownership of financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, as per the Company's Statement of Financial Position:

Refer to Note 3(a)(i),(ii),(iii),(iv),(vii), and (viii) (accounting policy)

INVESTMENT MANAGER'S REPORT (UNAUDITED)

Global Market Review

During December 2024, both equities and bond investors suffered losses. However, 2024 ended with consecutive second double digit returns for global equity investors, primarily driven by the U.S. markets. The MSCI World Index return was (-2.6%) for December and (+19.2%) for 2024, after achieving (+24.5%) return during 2023. In the bond market, corporate bonds performed best on both sides of the Atlantic, while longer-dated U.S. Treasuries even posted losses as U.S. Federal Reserve (Fed) rate cut hopes were scaled back.

EQUITY

United States (U.S.):

The U.S. equity market was one of the best performing globally in 2024, with the S&P 500 rising (+25.0%). Even though politics played a special role in 2024, the main drivers for the markets were once again the central banks, the economic environment and corporate earnings. Large cap blend performed relatively stronger (Russell 1000, +24.5%) compared to their small cap counterparts (Russell 2000, +11.4%). Within S&P 500 sector returns, Communication Services (+40.2%) and IT (+36.6%) were the best performer during 2024; Materials (-0.04%) and Health Care (+2.6%) were the bottom two performers. The U.S. economy continued to grow at a robust pace in the third quarter of 2024, at an annualised rate of 2.8% following 3.0% growth in the second quarter of 2024 led by consumption growth. The Fed delivered a hawkish cut of 25 basis points (bps) at their last meeting in 2024 to a new target range of 4.25-4.50%. The decision was not unanimous, reflecting some uncertainty.

Eurozone:

Eurozone equity markets had mixed returns during the third quarter 2024 as EURO STOXX returned (-1.7%); Germany's DAX Index grew by (+3.0%) and France's CAC 40 Index declined by (-3.1%). Also, for the full year 2024, returns were mixed EURO STOXX (+10.2%); DAX (+18.9%) and CAC40 (+0.9%). The Eurozone economy continues to face economic challenges as it enters 2025. The S&P Global's composite flash PMI for the eurozone in December was 49.5, indicating a slight improvement from November but still pointing to a decline in private sector output. Domestic political instability, softness in industries such as construction and automotives and lower interest from clients elsewhere in Europe dampened sales volumes keeping Eurozone manufacturing PMI at 45.1 in December. The European Central Bank (ECB) cut the deposit rate by another 25 bps in December, marking the fourth rate cut of the year. The ECB is responding to deteriorating economic data and aims to bring inflation towards its 2% target.

United Kingdom (U.K.):

In the U.K., leading equity benchmark, FTSE 100 Index, managed to perform mostly in line with its European peers returning (+9.6%) during 2024, its best annual performance in the last three years. In the U.K., the latest economic data indicates a mix of slowing growth, rising inflation, and a cautious approach from the Bank of England (BoE). Monthly GDP fell by (-0.1%) in both September and October, driven by falling production output. The BoE kept its base rate unchanged at 4.75%, despite some members voting for a cut as the governor indicated that gradual interest rate cuts are likely over the next year, but the approach will be data dependent.

Japan:

Japan's TOPIX 100 Index also had the second consecutive year of double digit return in local currency (2024: +24.0%; 2023 +30.3%). This was despite during the third quarter of 2024, the index was down more than 25% from its peak, before sharply recovering in the second week of August. The volatility was triggered by Bank of Japan's (BOJ) hawkish stance and dollar-yen carry trade reversed. During December, the private sector expanded at the fastest pace in three months in December (50.8 vs. 50.1), with a stronger services sector contrasting with a decline in manufacturing output. The BOJ held its policy rate unchanged at 0.25%, with a more hawkish tone suggesting potential rate hikes soon.

Emerging Markets (EM):

Emerging market fell during the fourth quarter of 2024 as MSCI Emerging Markets Index declined by (-7.9%) in USD. The decline was broad based as markets across China, India, Brazil and Korea, all declined during the quarter. The exception was MSCI Taiwan that returned (+7.1%) in TWD during the fourth quarter 2024. For the full year 2024, MSCI Emerging Markets returned (+8.0%) in USD primarily driven by allocation to China as MSCI China rose by (+23.0%) in CNY and Taiwan as MSCI Taiwan rose by (+44.2%) in TWD.

FIXED INCOME

United States (U.S.):

The fourth quarter of 2024 showed a sharp reversal of the U.S. treasury yields as 10-year yield increased from 3.78% to 4.57% and 2-year yield increased from 3.64% to 4.24%. As a result, 2-yr and 10-yr yield curve that was (-37) bps at the beginning of 2024, ended the year with +33 bps. Although the Fed delivered a hawkish cut of 25 bps at their last meeting in 2024, the updated (median) economic projections point to two more cuts in 2025, down from previously further four cut expectations. This reflects expectations of somewhat higher inflation next year, as core personal consumption expenditure (PCE) inflation is now projected to be 2.5% next year, up from 2.2%, with growth and unemployment little changed. Credit spreads remained flat for the quarter ending 2024 at 80 bps, up 3 bps from the third quarter 2024.

Eurozone:

The ECB cut the deposit rate by another 25 bps in December, marking the fourth rate cut of the year. The ECB is responding to deteriorating economic data and aims to bring inflation towards its 2% target. The term structure of Bund yields steepened in December 2024 with yields at the very short end moving lower, while all other yields in the mid and long end of the curve shifted upwards, probably driven by high new bond supply volumes in sight. On the back of rising rates, the EUR iBoxx Corporate All Index returned (-0.41%) in December. While financials lost (-0.29%) and non-financials fell (-0.51%), overall, they outperformed safe-haven assets like German bunds, which returned (-1.60%).

United Kingdom (U.K.):

During 2024, the BoE implemented two rate cuts of 25 bps each, bringing the year end bank rate down to 4.75%. Like its European peers, yields for UK Gilts also rose during December 2024. For the full year 2024, 10-year yield jumped from 3.53% to 4.56% and two-year yield increased from 3.95% to 4.38%. On the credit front, UK high yield outperformed UK investment grade.

Japan:

After markets were undecided on a December BoJ hike, in a dovish December BoJ meeting, the council voted 8-1 in favor of keeping the policy rate unchanged. While the prerequisites for a normalisation that still accommodates monetary policy rate at 0.25% have been in place for months, BoJ remains cautious, in the light of the new US administration and the upcoming annual wage negotiations. However, Governor Ueda keeps mentioning that the BoJ will raise rates if the economic picture keeps brightening. Lacking any reliable forward guidance, it remains ever unclear when the next hike is going to materialise. Ten-year Japan Government Bonds ended the year at 1.09%, at the highest point in over a decade.

Emerging Markets:

In contrast to its developed market peers, the yield on Chinese Government bonds continued to decline during December ending the year at the lowest point on record. During 2024, Chinese government 10-year bonds declined from (2.56%) to (1.67%) and 2-year bonds almost halved from (2.18%) to (1.09%). This drop in Chinese yields takes them below those of the country that has long been the benchmark for deflation and economic stagnation. Recent stimulus packages have successfully supported a growth rebound in China, as the fourth quarter figures could show, but headwinds are likely to intensify going forward (U.S. tariffs being the key factor).
